CHINA.
Thanksgiving and Plea.

THE work of the R.T.S. Special Committee for China is not only the largest but also the most successful of the Society's work. Its efforts are being so rapidly taken up throughout the Maritime Provinces of China, that there is every prospect of the work being speedily carried out. No other book (except from the Bible) has had so rapid a circulation in China. The same demand for it is felt in every part of the country, and yet that demand is not met. The Committee, therefore, appeals to you that you may accurately represent the message, the work and the spirit of the English mission. Whilst, however, we urge the thoughtful to send us the enclosed leaflet, we beg to say that we will still more widely in China, do not let us forget the urgent need of other publications. The Harold New Testament (Chinese) is out of print. Let the Committee be enabled to publish more of these. Find out how you can help. Write to the Secretary. It is clear that the means would be forthcoming.

* The names and full addresses of the addressee and sender should be carefully inserted by the sender (or at the issuing office) in spaces (1) and (5) respectively. In (5) the address to which the result of the enquiry is to be sent should be similarly entered.
† When the form is filled up at the time of registration, the designation of the office of posting and the registration number as given on the registration label must be inserted in the space at the head of the form, but the space for the name of the office of posting and the date of posting need not be filled in. When, however, the form is filled up subsequently, the registration number, the name of the office of posting and the date of posting must be inserted.

‡ When the form is received at the Office of Delivery at the same time as the postal packet to which it relates, the certificate (4) should be completed only if the recipient objects to complete and sign the acknowledgment (3), or if for any other reason his signature is unobtainable. When, however, the form is received after the postal packet has been delivered, part (3) should be left incomplete and part (4) should be completed, after reference to the delivery records, by the Postmaster or other officer dealing with such forms.

§ If the postal packet is officially re-directed, or is re-directed at the address and at once handed back to the Postmaster, the address in space (1) must be struck out and the new address inserted. When the packet is returned direct to the sender, the address in space (1) must be similarly struck out and the reason for the non-delivery of the packet noted on the form.

¶ When this form does not accompany the postal packet to which it refers, particulars of the mail in which the packet was forwarded to the next office should be given in space (2), and the form, folded in three and gummed, forwarded direct to the office of delivery (3). If the form is introduced at an Office other than that at which the packet was posted, it must be forwarded to the Office of posting in order that the particulars of the certificate of posting may be noted and particulars of despatch of the packet furnished.

|| When the form is completed it should be folded in three, and, after being gummed, returned to the address shown at (5).

Dear Count Gasparini,

Thank you so very much for the beautiful lilies you have sent me. They are lovely, and with give pleasure to us all. I will remember a bunch of lovely carnations, from Asmara, which you brought to Kassala for me, they were a revelation of the lovely flowers which flourish in Switrea.

It was a great pleasure meeting you again. With many messages of Goodnight from my husband
