

"Nelly is a wonderful caregiver and teacher. She deeply respects each individual child, and in doing so she can forge a deep bond with each child. My daughter would always seek Nellie out to share things with her and confide in her. It is wonderful to know that your child is going to spend the day with someone who your child likes so much, and someone who gives you child so much care and guidance."

Best,

Kathryn Sarkis