Shawn Farquhar of British Columbia

has appeared on dozens of TV shows including ELLEN in the US, Stephen & Chris in Canada, Asian Ace in Japan and even fooled Penn & Teller twice on their hit show Fool Us. He's performed in more than forty countries and has over six million views for a single YouTube video. He's the only one in history to win both top categories of the International Brotherhood of Magicians, and has won the highest award in magic, the Grand Prix World Champion of Magic at FISM, the Olympics of Magic. He's performed for Royalty and now the pinnacle of the profession, here at MAWNY.

Master of Ceremonies Keith Randolph is a bum but has pull with the show booker.

Jon Allen of London,

UK is a performer, lecturer, author and creator of unique magical effects. A professional magician since 1988, he has won the Magic Circle, World IBM & British Ring IBM close-up competitions. He was on the first episode of Penn & Teller: Fool Us in the UK, often performed at the magic castle and is due to be a regular performer on the Sun Princess cruise ship. His commercial magical effects – performed by thousands of magicians worldwide – include Paragon 3D, Double Back, The Destination Box, The Pain Game, and most famously, The Silent Treatment. Jon is a performer of "extraordinary ability" ... so says his successful work visa application.

Joe Monti of New York City

is a well-respected international lecturer, world-class close-up and stage performer, inventor and devoted single father of three terrific daughters. Joe was a consultant and Magic Producer on CRISS Angel's acclaimed TV show "MINDFREAK" for three successful years. Joe destroyed the audience with his presentation and successfully fooled everyone including Penn and Teller on Fool US and earned the coveted Penn & Teller F.U. Award.

Ventriloquist Kenny Byrd of Buffalo

and his friends create entertainment for audiences of all ages. His characters are so life-like, audiences forget that they are an extension of Kenny Byrd's energy. Performing nationwide for television, clubs, corporate events, colleges, resorts and charitable organizations, Kenny uniquely creates from the moment. Audiences are drawn into an intimate family to share sidesplitting laughter. Refreshing involvement, followed by praise long after the stage is empty, has earned him his reputation for being the catalyst for fun.

... of Niagara Falls, Ontario has entertained and amazed thousands worldwide since the 70s. On television or on stage in North America, Bahamas, Bermuda, Japan, or China, this dynamic and versatile performer always leaves the audience screaming for more. Ken won The Linking Ring Trick of the Year and has been published extensively. For over 30 years, Ken portrayed Merlin at the world-famous Henry VIII Feast at Niagara-on-the-Lake's Buttery.

Alexandra Duvivier

is the winner of the French Mandrake d'Or and the first French woman to fool Penn & Teller on "Fool Us." Daughter of living legend magician Dominique Duvivier, who never pushed her to follow the same path – but at 15, Alexandra set out to become worthy of her father's legacy. She is a favorite corporate entertainer (Hermès, Louis Vuitton, Chanel, L'Oréal, etc.) and the hands double for some of the biggest films in French cinema. Her natural humor and charm enchant all who see her. Alexandra is also a trainer and speaker (Innovative communication methods using magic). In 2021, she and her father created the streaming channel doublefond tv.
