

HARRISON COUNTY CRIME STOPPERS

BOARD MINUTES 1-4-2024

With 15 in attendance, President Jeane Christinson called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. minutes were read and approved

There was discussion on the banner placements. There is currently one in Logan and one in Missouri Valley. The remaining banners will be used for events. Chilli Cookoff was added to the event sheet. Stacy put a post on Facebook asking the public for ideas on where to hold events

Thank you letters were sent to Washington County bank for the donations received. Thank you Jeane!

Updated posters were made for the $2,000 reward being offered for missing person Jesse George. Jeane will replace the old ones with the new.

Challenge coins. There are 40 coins remaining. Denton is looking into getting Venmo to make it easier to receive payments.

Update on tips- We have received 7 tips online for the month and a few calls into the tip line as well. It's a work in progress. Denton will share any tips from Stacy in relation to the missing persons with DCI investigators.

The ride along waiver form was presented. Flaughtery went over the basic information. Jeane and Stacy will be participating.

The new hoodies and t-shirts were brought to the meeting. They turned out really nice. Stacy will place another order. Some had requested grey instead of black and some a different size. Orders have to be 12 or more before being sent into Sign Depot.

Police Updates

The Dare program is starting to reach out to every school starting after the holidays.

Dunap PD had calls for domestic complaints, narcotics and illegal firearms as well as a lot of transports.
