

PATRICIA J DOUCET

Speaker ✨ Author
Pianist ✨ Artist

Signature Message From Broken to Beloved

Patricia is a motivational speaker and mentor who dedicates herself to supporting women who feel broken and lost due to past misfortunes and mistakes.

Moving to her mother's basement at 61, Patricia knew she needed to change. Growing up in church, trying to keep all the rules to earn love from God and others—she finally fell apart. While life had looked good from the curb, it was a glossed-over version. From hiding in self-inflicted busyness and people-pleasing, she has found her way out of the ditches of despair and disappointment. Experiencing brokenness on many levels, she surrendered her life's shattered and fragmented pieces to God, beginning her journey to wholeness.

She now lives with a newfound purpose: to help women understand they are not alone in their brokenness and can be beautifully put back together.

With a Biblical foundation and her own life experiences, she helps women rediscover their self-worth and encourages them to embrace God's grace for their future. She inspires them to learn from their past and confidently anticipate their journey toward wholeness with clarity, humor, and vulnerability. They will be reminded that they are not broken beyond repair but are beautiful to the One who loves them beyond what they can dream, hope, or imagine.

Women who attend her sessions leave feeling revitalized, with a renewed sense of hope, purpose, and confidence in God to take the next step in their lives.

Other Speaking Topics:

Divorced But Not Forsaken / Marvelous Midlife/ A Prayer, a Promise, a Purpose.

Testimonial: "Thank you for helping us recognize meaning and purpose in our own lives."
Loretta Kent-RSVP Chairperson.

902-957-0510

www.patriciajdoucet.com

pat@patriciajdoucet.com

"I would rather be a genuinely broken person on my journey to wholeness than a fake version of myself pretending to have arrived."