Professional Summary

I am a professional endurance athlete and have represented India across several worldwide recognized and challenging endurance races, including ULTRAMAN and IRONMAN Triathlons. In 2015, I founded "TABONO" – a sports and events consultancy firm which has successfully championed three running event races in Gurgaon, Lucknow, and Varanasi, and two triathlon races (Herculean & Hawkman) in India. In 2018, I also published a book - "Run to Realise: Aspects of life," to summarize the learnings and failures of my endurance sports journey. The book was well-received and critically acclaimed, especially among sports enthusiasts and corporates. In 2021-22, I was selected by Discovery TV to participate in its first sports reality show: India's Ultimate Warrior. For the last five years, I have been invited by companies like Siemens, Medtronic India, Nucleus Software, KPMG, IndusInd Bank, Linde India, GE – BHEL, and many others to inspire others for a healthy and active lifestyle.

Objective

As a motivated and creative professional, driven by a desire to engage and motivate people towards fitness and a healthy lifestyle, I want to further utilize my passion and experience in endurance sports, creating IPs and events execution to new heights with dedicated work. I would want to support the government institutions, and in the system along with brands and events and share the expertise, ideas, and ways to strategize branding, sampling, and amplifying the impact of the initiatives. Offering high-caliber solutions in handling multiple projects, associations, and events simultaneously while establishing productive productivity working relationships at all levels.

Loved this simple yeat very powerful anecdote of the author. Quite inspiring how an ordinary boy from a small town in Uttar Pradesh went on to become one of the first few Ultraman from India. Amazing to know how at such a young age he has been able to draw learning from each event he participated in. The way the story line flows makes it a very easy read.

What a amazing write up, this can easily be taken as a Management lessons book rather than a book on running. Congratulations to the author on his grit and determination.

☆☆★☆☆ Wear a shoe to read this book

4 November 2018 Verified Purchase

You need to wear a running shoe to read Run to realize, brutally honest and straight from the heart, Abhishek Mishra narrates his valuable life experience into a story to all the fellow runners and others who want to run unaware what is the difference between fitness and being healthy

   Read to realise!!

This book covers it all. The fears, the pain and the sense of achievement after a long run. Abhishek's humility to accept his over estimations, unhealthy pride and his learnings from each event he participated leads us to introspect our own lives. Not only runner the learning are for every individual ... To think and do the introspection. A must read.

There are too many things one can learn from "Run to Realise". Its all about following your dream and about taking the risk of following your dreams, which is actually so difficult to do and there are very few people in this world who actually do, I mean risk it all, just to follow your heart and your dream. Beauty is, the author is so right in saying that when u decide to follow your dreams the entire universe conspires in your favour

★★★★★ A book about life lessons through endurance sports like running and triathlon.

19 September 2018

A book that shares important aspects of life. Something like realization of what life is about through the journey of endurance sports like running and triathlon. Abhishek is a phenomenal athlete with his achievements like multiple times ironman and an ultraman apart from numeruous half marathons, marathons and ultra r He dared to follow his passion over profession. An interesting read! Whether you are a runner or non runner, this book would be a nice read. Highly recommended!
