

Commonly asked questions:

What will be closed for the Sea-Wall Project???

The entire Island is open this year, please come and enjoy!

Where can I pick-up and drop off my Uber or Lyft rides?

Do NOT drop off on 2nd Street. For Your Safety! Please have your driver drop you off on a side street or in a regular parking lot. Parking lots at the corner of the Toledo and Appian, Basin 4 of the Marina and Mothers Beach on Appian Way and The Toledo are good places.

Where is the best place to see the Parade?

The best place to see the Parade is along the Naples Canals and outer walks. Other good places are along Bay Shore Drive, North of 2nd Street, the Beach along Bay Shore Drive South of 2nd Street or on East Bay Shore Walk on the Belmont Peninsula.

Can I see the Parade from a restaurant? No.

There are many wonderful restaurants in Naples, Belmont Shore and the surrounding areas from which you can walk to the Parade from.

How do I get to Naples?

From the North exit the 405 at Studebaker, from the South exit 7th Street and turn left on Studebaker. Go south on Studebaker (toward the beach) Turn right on 2nd Street. The second light is Pacific Coast Highway, go straight over the Davies Bridge and you're on Naples Island. Enjoy the Parade. Please deposit all trash into the proper receptacles.

How do I access Naples?

You can access Naples off 2nd Street on a number of residential streets, including Naples Plaza, Revenna, Tivoli and The Toledo. It is Best to Park and walk. The Island has very limited parking. If you choose to park on Naples Island it is best to arrive several hours before the event and have dinner at one of our fine local restaurants. Reservations are a must for Parade night.

Where do I park?

Alamitos Bay Marina off 2nd Street and Marina Drive offers substantial free parking just over the Davies Bridge from Naples. Marina, Basin 4 on Appian Way fills up early. Mothers Beach off Revenna and Appian Way has some metered parking as well as Beach parking at Bayshore and Ocean Boulevard.

Are there any restrooms or Porto potties? Yes.

There are public restrooms at Mothers Beach and at Bayshore and 2nd Street. Also there will be Porto potties at The Colonnade (by the Fountain off Revenna) and Naples Plaza Park.

What else is going on?

There will be groups of carolers walking around the Island and singing holiday songs. Naples residents have an annual house decorating contest, and many homes compete for bragging rights and annual awards. It's a visual extravaganza for the whole family to enjoy.

The Naples Island Business Association has many of the restaurants and businesses open and decorated for the holidays. (we give out awards for them tooí)

Extra police and private security have been hired for the event to help ensure security and crowd control for the Island. The police will close the Island to vehicle access as they deem necessary.

Please come and enjoy safely...
