WARNING: FLORIDA STATUTE 773.04

Under Florida Law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities.

The undersigned participant fully assumes all risks associated with the participation in an equine activity and holds the sponsor(s) of the equine activity, owner(s) harmless from any injury, death or damages incurred as a result of equine activity or participation of the equine activity, including but not limited to injury or death due to: faulty equipment or tack; any failure on the part of the sponsor to determine the ability of the participant to safely manage the particular equine based on the participants representation of his or her ability; a dangerous latent condition which was known to the equine activity sponsor, equine professional, or person and failed to post warning signs; a sponsor committing an act or omission that a reasonably prudent person would not have done or omitted under the same or similar circumstances or that constitutes willful or wanton disregard for the safety of the participant, which act or omission was a proximate cause of the injury of intentional injury of the participant.

I have read, understand, and agree with the Equine Liability Waver.
