

Knottingley Velo

Summary of Membership Terms and Conditions

- All new membership applications and renewals should be made through the club subscription page <https://www.britishcycling.org.uk/club/profile/6870/knottingley-velo> hosted by British Cycling.
  - If you have exceptional circumstances which mean you cannot apply for or renew your membership online through British Cycling, please contact our Membership Secretary info@kvelo.co.uk
  - Membership renewals run from 31 January annually. If you join after 1 October, your membership will be valid for the following year.
  - Membership applications and payment for individual under the age of 18 must be submitted by a parent or guardian. Please see the Privacy Notice for more information and note Club Welfare requirements for under 18 riders.
- Details of membership are held within the British Cycling Club Management Tool. British Cycling or Knottingley Velo will not share your details with any third party. Please read our privacy notice on our website for more information on how we hold and process your personal data.
- Potential new members may only participate on Club rides up to a maximum of 3 times before joining the Club. The recommendation is that these initial rides should be a Club ride and not a Club Chain-Gang ride.
- All members of Knottingley Velo are required to have appropriate third party insurance. For more information, please speak to the Committee or visit our club website.
- Knottingley Velo accepts no liability for loss or injury resulting from participation in club activities or events.
- Refunds are not offered for members who opt to leave the Club other than in exceptional circumstances as approved by the Committee.
- All members of Knottingley Velo must agree to abide by the Club Constitution, policies and ride etiquette.
