It is with the extremely radical joy of God that I welcome you to the eight United Youth Congress. I am so excited about what God has prepared for all of us in this event and beyond. Yes, it has basically been the BAYDA team that put this event together; but it is God Himself who has taken personal interest to make sure the experience goes beyond the event. He has designed something this next several days especially for you!

In my ten years of serving God as a Youth Ministries Leader, I have never experienced the level of excitement in anticipation for an event as I have had preparing for "No More Chains". God is doing something different this time. I know this, because the challenges have been great in the preparation for this event. However, it is not the obstacles that the devil has placed in our way, nor is it the hurdles that many of our youth and youth leaders have had to get over that makes me know that God is doing something different. What makes me know this, is, victory after victory has been won on the enemy's turf - victories gained that could only be gained by the hand of God. What I have come to realize is that the time is short. Jesus is about to come, and the prince of this world is fighting against Him over your soul and mine. The apostle Peter puts it this way, "the devil is roaring around like a hungry lion, looking for who he can destroy."

God's great design for this Youth Congress is to give us the weapons of warfare that will make us victorious throughout our Christian journey, and to break the chains that bind us to mediocrity in our Christian experience. This gift is ours for the taking, and is offered through the seminars, music, outreach ministries, sermons, and even the time we spend together in recreation. Yes, my friends we have the opportunity this weekend to "sure up" our steps toward the kingdom of God, by interacting with one another in Christian fellowship, and reaching others for Christ through Christian service.

I want to let you in on a secret! "It is through service for others that we gain our greatest advantages over the enemy." It is my prayer that you will take advantage of this opportunity to gain significant strides in your Christian walk through one of our outreach projects. By all means, have a Holy Ghost good time in praise and worship. Give of your best at the recreational events, and gain all you can at the seminars and workshops. More than all, witness the power of God at work in our lives as we help to break the chains that so many are bound with. Jesus came to "set the captives free" from sin, destruction, and shame. Let's exemplify the character of Jesus here in Atlanta, and proclaim for ourselves and the communities in Atlanta: Christ has paid the price and set us free. Praise God! "NO MORE CHAINS!"

Finally, I need to take just a moment to thank all of the teams of wonderful individuals from all over this country who have worked tirelessly to make this plan of God a reality. This includes the men and women of BAYDA, our local conference administrators, and staff; union conferences - in particular the Southern Union, Georgia Cumberland, and South Atlantic conferences, and our North American Division leadership. We thank all of the local church pastors, youth leaders, and parents who have sacrificed to make this experience happen for our youth. We also thank our presenters, speakers, musical talents, and support staff. Most of all, we thank God for Jesus who paid the price to loose us from the chains of our bondage!

Because of Him!

Dear United Youth Congress Attendees:

I am delighted to send greetings to each of you as you gather to participate in the United Youth Congress. God has blessed His church around the world with a great number of young people who love Jesus and are committed to follow His footsteps.

The United Youth Congress provides a great opportunity to deepen your relationship with Jesus, understand more fully the Lord's plan for your lives, making new friends with common interests, and networking to better realize how you can support the work of taking the Good News of salvation to every nation, kindred, tongue and people.

During this quinquennium, the General Conference will be promoting significant and new initiatives to help us bring to the world the message of hope it desperately needs. Our theme "Journey of Hope" is intended to bind us together in the promise of His second coming and motivate us to tell the world of His wonderful love and our assurance of salvation in Him.

We encourage you to find out from your youth leaders how you can participate in the initiatives "Tell the World" and the "Elijah Project". As Ellen G. White stated, "with such an army of workers as our youth, rightly trained, might furnish, how soon the message of a crucified, risen and soon coming Savior might be carried to the whole world?" (ChS 30.2)

You have a very special role to perform in your church. If time should remain just a little bit longer, you will be the future leaders of this church. It is my prayer that you will take every opportunity to be trained in the service of God and to do your best for the Master.

Yours in His service,

Jan Paulsen
President

As Mayor of Atlanta, I welcome you to the United Youth Congress hosted by the Seventh-day Adventist Black Youth Directors Association (BAYDA).

This conference brings together a diverse group of youth and young adults from around the world for the purpose of reaching out and offering encouragement to so many people in need of hope.

I applaud BAYDA in their support of our youth, and taking on the responsibility for nurturing our future leaders. Also, I would like to personally thank you for having a heart for the homeless.

On behalf of the citizens of Atlanta, I wish you a meaningful and productive conference. Thank you and please take the time to enjoy our great City.

Sincerely,

Shirley Franklin

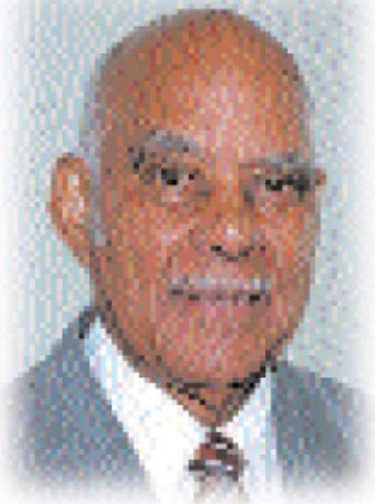

Greetings to the 2006 United Youth Congress

The Office for Regional Conference Ministry (ORCM) sends special greetings to BAYDA Leaders and the thousands of delegates and attendees to this great Youth Congress being held in Atlanta, Georgia, April 19-23, 2006.

ORCM is delighted to assist in the funding of this event to bless thousands of youth from all across North America, Canada, Bermuda, and islands of the sea. What a great opportunity to witness for Jesus to this great city of Atlanta, the hub of the Southeast! Surely, this event will leave a lasting impression of the power of God to save and sustain youth from sin, then empower them to share the saving grace of Christ to thousands who will behold them in action all around Atlanta.

It is our prayer that the God of heaven will fill every attendee with the power of the Holy Spirit to display the difference of Christian youth on fire for Heaven. We shall pray for safe travel and a great time in Atlanta for all attendees.

Dear Attendees of the United Youth Congress:

It is a pleasure to greet you during this United Youth Congress in Atlanta, Georgia. As you participate in this unique learning experience, may you come to realize that through Jesus, there are "No More Chains."

Since I cannot talk with each of you personally, I would like to share with you why JESUS IS MY FRIEND:

Jesus is my friend. We became friends one Friday night as I knelt beside my bed in my dormitory room at Wisconsin Academy. Of course, I had known about Him before. In fact, I could pass all the Bible tests, argue religion with people, offer public prayers, or even give public lip service to His name. But knowing about Jesus is not the same as knowing Him. Knowing about Jesus does not necessarily make one happy, but knowing Jesus as a personal friend and Savior will.

Our family was introduced to Jesus in northern Wisconsin by a dedicated church elder who answered the Bible questions we asked, and then proceeded to give us Bible studies that eventually led to baptism. Within a few months I was enrolled in the Merrill, Wisconsin, church school, where my teacher helped me to grow in Jesus. But later, when I was a teenager, I lost sight of Him. However, on a special Friday night at Wisconsin Academy, Jesus became my friend once again.

Having an experience with Jesus, you see, is not just a once-in-a-lifetime thing, nor even a once-a-year thing. Just a few years ago I visited Wisconsin Academy. I went to the boys' dorm, found the assistant dean, and asked to see my old room. There the assistant dean joined me as I knelt by the bed again and rededicated my life to Jesus.

I want my experience with Jesus to be a constant one. And I would like the same for you. As I write this, I'm inviting Jesus in again right now. And as you read this, I invite you to give yourself to Jesus too. In fact, I invite you to commit the rest of your life to Him.

Very sincerely,

Don C. Schneider

THEME SONG

“No More Chains”

Words & Music by Chavvah McCoy

©2005

No more chains are holding me
No more chains are holding me
I've been set free
I've been washed by the blood of the Lamb
My price was paid with His nail-pierced hands

I am free, No more bonds of slavery
He rescued me, He loosed the shackles and set me free
No more chains, No more chains are holding me

(Verse)

If there are times in your life, the cares of this world have you down
Just call on the Savior, He'll turn your life around
I'm no longer a slave to my sins, He gave me a new heart
Now I live for Him

(Chorus)

No more chains are holding me
No more chains are holding me
I've been set free
I've been washed by the blood of the Lamb
My price was paid with His nail-pierced hands

No more chains, No more bonds of slavery
I am free, From my sins I've been released
No more chains, No more chains are holding me

(Repeat Chorus 2x—Modulate each time)

No more chains, No more chains are holding me (3 x)

To The 2006 United Youth Congress Delegates,

I am happy to welcome each of you to this the 2006 Youth Congress in Atlanta Georgia. The theme this year is indeed provocative, "No More Chains". The Youth Directors have planned workshops, and programs designed to help all of us become aware of our shackles, and provide the singular solution – Jesus Christ.

It is my prayer that when this convention concludes and we return to our various cities and churches, that the memory of this event will have a positive effect not only on our youth but also everyone in attendance!

My prayer is that God will make our time together during this Youth Congress a most profitable experience!

Delegates and Friend,

On behalf of the officers, staff and members of the Lake Region Conference it is a privilege for me to greet and welcome you to the "No More Chains" United Youth Congress. With all the emphasis on war in Iraq, terrorism, homeland security issues, hurricanes, and all of the other terrible things going on in this world, it is good to know that we can still come aside, as children, youth and adults together, to bless the name of Jesus.

This event is designed to do just that; bless the name of Jesus! It is because of Jesus we can claim victory over the stuff the enemy places in our path. It is because of Jesus we have victory over sin in our lives! It is because of Jesus we can declare "No More Chains"! So these next several days ought to be a time when we claim the power of Jesus in our lives! But we must also take this opportunity to let those people of the city of Atlanta who perhaps have not been "set free" know that there is victory in Jesus for them also.

It is my understanding that there will be praise and worship, seminars and workshops, concerts and recreation during this event. I was also told that there are going to be many opportunities for the delegates and participants to go into several Atlanta communities to provide the ministry of service for the people in these communities. I hope that each of you will take the opportunity to give some time to this aspect of this event. If we are indeed going to bless the name of Jesus, we must put on the face of Jesus in the city of Atlanta. I read this quote some time ago and it has stuck with me for many years, and I want to share it with you as you prepare to show the people of Atlanta that when Jesus is in the mix chains fall off: "Jesus mingled with people as one who desired their good, He sympathized with them, ministered to their needs, won their confidence, and then He said to them follow me and I will make you fishers of men."

So my, beloved children of God, by all means have a good time at this United Youth Congress, but in everything you do bless the name of Jesus. Whether it is among you during worship or recreation, or in the community serving in areas where the shackles of adversity and despair may prevail, bless the name of Jesus and declare "No More Chains"!

Sincerely
Your Friend and Brother,

J.L. Davis

United Youth Congress Atlanta, Georgia

April 19, 2006

Dear Delegates:

Greetings! What a grand privilege it is for me, on behalf of the administration of the Northeastern Conference, to welcome you to United Youth Congress 2006. Over the next few days of your stay in Atlanta, you will be experiencing one of the significant events that occur in the life of any Adventist youth.

Youth congresses have a long and rich history in the Youth Ministry program of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and have been noted for effecting positive life changes in young people who have experienced them. The United Youth Congress concept hails from that proud tradition, but finds its uniqueness in the fact that it brings together youth and young adults from within the inner cities across the North America Division, and equips them to meet the particular challenges of Christian living and ministering to their peers in the inner city arena.

The theme of this congress is "No More Chains", and it is my hope that you will find new freedom in Christ during these days in Atlanta. Whether this is your first United Youth Congress or your second, I invite you to drink deeply of the inspiration and instruction that comes through every worship service and seminar. The Regional Conference Youth Directors have planned with you in mind. Be blessed.

United Youth Congress 2006
The Georgia World Congress Center
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Delegates and Guests:

It is with great joy and anticipation that we welcome you to this spiritual, action-packed conclave of youth. The South Atlantic Conference and the entire Atlanta Christian community are delighted that you have chosen this historic city to host this great event.

Our prayer and hope is that every young person and every attendee will receive not only instruction and information that will help them in their quest for a better life, but that they will be spiritually changed as the chains of destructive behavior are cut loose. We pray that the mental chains that cripple and hold back growth and progress will be removed. More importantly, we want to experience a spiritual growth that will help each of us to emulate Christ every day. Our cry for the youth who are here is "NO MORE CHAINS!" . . . what binds and impedes responsible mature growth will be left behind as we are set free.

Many thanks to BAYDA and the brilliance that they all share in making this event happen. To all the planners, committees and volunteers who worked feverishly to assure a congress that would be the best ever, we applaud an expressed appreciation for all you have done to make this assembly a great success.

May God bless each delegate as you take full advantage of all that has been planned. As the years go by, may you look back at these life-changing workshops, seminars and activities designed to help you not only identify your chains but by the grace of God remove each one. I am personally proud of each of you and encouraged by your presence.

Until He returns . . .

To the Delegates of the BAYDA Youth Congress 2006:

Greetings in the name of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the Invisible Delegate, who represents us in realms on high.

It is our hope that “Youth Congress 2006” will enlarge your understanding, advance your education, develop your potential, broaden your ministry, deepen your experience in life, mature your character, and increase your relationship with Jesus Christ.

The theme, “No More Chains”, declares that we can be free today and shall be free eternally of the bondage of sin. It is a Congress like this that reminds us of the excitement of living for Jesus!

Today, you are about to encounter an experience that will never pass your way again. Therefore, reach out and grasp the moment to be a witness for the One who has loosed the chains of darkness that had you bound. Participate in the witnessing events and enjoy the privilege of leading individuals out of hatred into love; out of worry into joy; out of perplexity into peace; out of misery into comfort; out of loneliness into friendship; out of defilement into holiness; and out of nothing into something!

We are proud to have you as delegates to this life changing event. Remember, the impressions you make here will be lasting ones, so make yours count for time and eternity, impressions that will stand up on the Day of Judgment. Your selection as a delegate was not an accident. Your presence here will serve a purpose.

Keep marching toward the kingdom designed for you and us. Remember, it does not cost you any money; just give your life to the One who is willing and able to set you free from whatever besets you.

It is with these words that we welcome you to “Youth Congress 2006.” You are Welcome, Welcome, Welcome.

Praying for YOU until the day when all chains shall be broken,

Dear Youth of BAYDA:

Welcome to United Youth Congress, 2006!

SEVENTH-DAY
ADVENTIST
CHURCH

It is always exciting for youth to gather and fellowship. Southeastern Conference is happy to be a sponsor of this worthy event each time local Conference Youth Leaders collaborate and plan this Congress to affirm our existence as an organization and reaffirm our mission as an Adventist Youth Society. When we gather we relish looking back at the road we've traveled. Fond memories are generated as we trace our continuing efforts to grow in faith and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Today, the world is changing. The world has changed! Looking forward, as we remain true to our mission, we will find ourselves on a road where few are traveling; and those who did not take advantage of these kinds of gathering opportunities as times to renew their faith commitment will not be found there. It is not a road for large gatherings, but, a road for mission-driven individuals who are committed enough to step away from the crowd and stand alone for principle. Even at this Congress there are many who are ready and willing to travel that road. Many will be gathered, but few will be chosen to make the journey. Are you one of them?

It is not unusual to hear of thousands of young people congregating for a rock concert, college sporting event or Spring Break on the beach. It is not unusual to read about youth involved in gang banging, promiscuity and drug abuse. But it is unusual to see young people coming together to break the chains of evil and commit themselves to following Jesus. Unusual is good and we praise God for you!

May all Congress delegates be unusually drawn to the person and presence of Jesus in their lives. May all be unusually filled by the power of the Holy Spirit. May all be unusually convicted to break the chains of sin and share the goodness of Salvation through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

BAYDA United Youth Congress
Atlanta, Georgia

Maranatha!! Welcome to Atlanta, Georgia.

The South Atlantic Conference Youth Department invites you to pull up a chair, sit right down, and enjoy a nice cold glass of serious southern hospitality. With bated breath, we have anticipated this special moving of the Spirit of God upon our youth while here in this city. The praying and planning, like perfumed incense, has reached the throne of God and we have humbly requested an earth shaking out pouring of His grace upon our experience. As we combine our total efforts together, something powerful will happen.

Consider this thought with me. “CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW?” An advertisement ploy used by a giant cell phone company to attract customers, caught the ears of the masses. Clearly communicating from any locale stole the hearts of cell phone users. A great deal of time and scientific research went into the project. From the remotest of places, the question reverberates, “CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW?” As the need to share information in a timely manner increased, this cell phone company’s sales skyrocketed. It put people in touch with each other from anywhere.

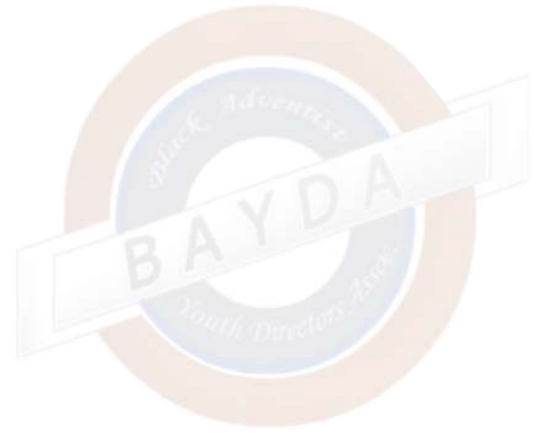

If the world has discovered this great need to communicate, what about our Heavenly Father? EGW says, “God has employed the youth to be his helping hand.” With all the clamoring of this world to get their attention, God is asking us, Youth Ministry Servants, to raise the bar so they “CAN HEAR HIM NOW.” This 2006 United Youth Congress in Atlanta, Georgia, by the grace of God, will do its very best to get the voice of God into the hearing of all who come. We do hope and pray you will hear Him now.

Again, welcome to Atlanta.

Yours in the Master’s Service,

Drake P. Barber
SAC Youth Ministries Director

BLACK ADVENTIST YOUTH DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION

Elder Claude Harris, II, Chairperson
Elder Anthony J. Kelly, Executive Secretary
Elder Roy C. Parham, Treasurer

April 19, 2006

Dear Valued Team:

I am writing this letter with the express desire to give credit where credit is due. When preparing and executing such a fantastic undertaking as United Youth Congress, the process would never reach its end unless there were dedicate people on the ground who put forth untiring effort to make it so.

I, on behalf of the officers and members of the Black Adventist Youth Directors Association (BAYDA), want to express our gratitude to the men and women of the Southern Union, and particularly the Georgia Cumberland, and South Atlantic conferences of Seventh-day Adventists. As we begin the opening session of this monumental event, it is clear to me that it would not happen without you.

Lives will be changed for time and eternity because of your efforts and support of this timeless event. Chains that have shackled some for most of their lives will fall off because of you. Jesus will be seen by some for the first time because you have allowed Him to be seen through your service to humanity. Only the blessed reunion will be able to tell the full story about what was begun here in Atlanta, April 19-23, 2006 at United Youth Congress: "No More Chains" and many of you will shout the halalujah praise because of what the Holy Spirit was able to bring to pass because of you.

As we have come, time after time, to Atlanta in preparation for the event the southern hospitality that you are so well known for has not been lacking in any way. You have made what could have been a most difficult task bearable, and for this again I say "Thank you!"

Because of Him!
