A Message from the President Eastview Wrestling Boosters

Eastview Wrestling Families, Fans and Supporters,

Welcome to the 2018-2019 season! On behalf of the Eastview Wrestling Booster Club (EWBC), we want to thank each of you for the role you play in supporting Eastview Wrestling. Your support and dedication significantly contributes to rewarding experiences for the athletes and continued success for the program.

Thank you to our coaches for the time and effort they put in throughout the year. From the training days during the season to facilitating training opportunities during the off-season, they are dedicated to improving the athletes and supporting them as they progress through their high school careers.

Thank you to our program sponsors. Your support helps provide opportunities in a variety of areas. We greatly appreciate the relationships we have built with you.

A special thanks to the wrestlers! Between training, nutrition, school work, rest and making proper choices as a leader, your commitment and effort doesn't go unnoticed.

"Stop at Nothing" is the 2018-2019 season motto selected by team captains. The athletes understand their "stop at nothing" mindset and grit can be applied in their academics, arts or athletics as they strive for success.

Serving as President for the EWBC is an opportunity for us to give back to the wrestling community our five sons are involved in. EWBC is made up of parents who are committed to enhancing the overall wrestling experience for athletes and their families. If you are interested in volunteering or would like more information, please contact us at eastviewwrestlingboosters@gmail.com.

Stop at Nothing!

2018-2019 Eastview Wrestling

STOP AT NOTHING means...
"To do whatever it takes to accomplish a task or goal."
 (Multiple sources)

Fairly simple and straight forward definition. Putting this phrase into action is where many run into difficulty.

Everyone has goals in life, be it personal, educational, Spiritual, relational, etc. These goals can be long term-longer than a few months to accomplish; or short term-daily, and/or weekly. There are many obstacles that can get in the way to reach said goals—for our wrestlers STOP AT NOTHING is going to be the mindset to facing those obstacles head on; sacrificing to reach individual and team goals.

SACRIFICE—Wrestlers, to be successful in life, you must be willing to sacrifice and be disciplined and STOP AT NOTHING to reach your goals. When your friends are out late and you have a morning practice on a Saturday, do you go home early? Are you willing to watch what you put in your body to optimize your health? Are you willing to manage your studies? Are you willing to STOP AT NOTHING to reach your goals?

Win or lose you will never regret working hard, making sacrifices, being disciplined or focusing "too much". Success is measured by what we have done to prepare for competition.

—Coach John Smith Oklahoma State

It is no secret to success now days—hard work, discipline, sacrifice...ask yourself. Are you willing to STOP AT NOTHING to reach your goals?

Examples of athletes who stopped at nothing to be their best:

Jamill Kelly was born in Atwater, California, where he attended Atwater High School and placed fourth in the state wrestling tournament as a senior. He spent one year at Lassen Community College then transferred to Oklahoma State where he became a three time letter winner. Even though he never won a state high school tournament or a national title in college, Kelly did win the 2004 USA Nationals and the US Olympic trials at 66 kg (145.5 lbs) to represent the US in Athens. After winning both pool matches 3-0, he defeated eventual bronze medalist Makhach Murtazaliev of Russia in the semifinal, 3-1. In the gold medal match, Kelly faced Ukrainian Elbrus Tedeyev. Tedeyev would win the gold 3-1, leaving Kelly with the silver.

Former NFL QB Kurt Warner was one of the biggest underdog stories in American sports history. He went from sacking groceries at a grocery store, to becoming a Super Bowl winning quarterback in the NFL.

Former MLB pitcher Jim Abbott was a talented athlete, but he had one glaring problem. He was born without a right hand. The ex-California Angels pitcher didn't let this bother him, as he still was able to win 87 games in his 11-year big league career. He also pitched a No-hitter.

Anthony Robles was born without a leg, but he didn't let that stop him from becoming a national high school and college wrestling champion. He began his career on the mat in his high school. His first match as a small 90-pound freshman was less than epic, he got better and then became the best. In March of 2011, the All-American Arizona State University student won the NCAA championship title for the 125-pound weight class division.

Commitment To Excellence

How good do you want to be? If your answer is, "good enough to get by," then a commitment to excellence is not necessary, but if your completely honest answer is, "the best," you must make a total commitment to excellence.

Wrestlers are born with varying degrees of natural ability. Sacrifice and a commitment to excellence are required to develop that ability. Time, hard work, continuous practice and repetition all go into the making of a good athlete.

To be a winner you must be willing to make sacrifices. This means maintaining good training habits, getting the proper amount of rest, and eating a balanced diet.

You can be as great as you want to be. If you believe in yourself and have the courage, determination, dedication, competitive drive, and if you are willing to give up the little things in life to accomplish an ultimate goal down the road, you will succeed!

In our years of involvement in athletics, we have seen athletes make a sincere commitment to excellence. They had a burning desire to be not just good, but great. They craved coaching. They wanted to learn a new wrestling move every day. They worked harder than the other wrestlers during the season and they never stopped working in the offseason. They went out of their way to look for tougher competition. Finally, they were stubborn – they refused to settle for anything less than the best.

As a result, each was a big winner. There was no luck or chance involved; these wrestlers worked hard so they would always have an edge when they went into their matches. They knew they would win...and they did.

A commitment to excellence means you must be willing to work hard, to push yourself physically until it hurts. We believe that any wrestler who walks off the mat after a full match and is not physically spent has not worked to his physical potential.

If you have a true commitment to excellence you will give up anything that does not help you become better as an athlete or a person. Don't be content with mediocrity- strive to live up to the greatness within you.

COMMITMENT NIGHT: This is a night for you to pledge your commitment to excellence in the Eastview Wrestling program. This night will involve activities that encourage you to reflect on your goals and to discuss what it will take to reach those goals. Also, this night will emphasize each wrestler's commitment to the whole team. We depend upon each wrestler to succeed. Your complete commitment is crucial to the success of the team. You deserve to give yourself the best opportunity to succeed. BE THE BEST YOU CAN BE!

The great coach Vince Lombardi had this to say about making the commitment to excellence:

"For the winner there is 100 percent elation, 100 percent laughter, 100 percent fun and for the loser the only thing left is a 100 percent resolution and 100 percent determination. The game, I think, is a great deal like life. Every man makes his own personal commitment toward excellence and toward victory. Although you know ultimate victory can never be completely won, it must be pursued with all of one's might and each week there is a new encounter, each year a new challenge.

"I'd like to say that the quality of any man's life is a full measure of that man's personal commitment to excellence and to victory, regardless of what field he may be in."

MAKE A COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE!
