EASTVIEW High School, which finished last year with an overall record of 3-19 and a conference tally of 1-8.

Leading the team this year are senior captains Matt McDonald, Tony Rodin and Joe Theisen. Joining them are sophomores Adam Fokken and David Rasmussen, juniors Matt Davis, Nate Ernst, Jim Maloney, Brad Okonek and Sean Richards and senior Brandon Jones.

According to second-year head coach Kurt Habeck, the team's strengths include the number of committed athletes in the program, team attitude and effort and select individual experience. Varsity experience is the team's weakness, he said.

Habeck said he is looking for daily improvement. The team has high expectations, with goals of finishing in the top half of the conference and a strong finish at sections and state, he said.

The Eastview High wrestling team won only three times last season, but like many other athletic programs at Eastview, the Lightning wrestlers are way ahead the pace of routine improvement.

Eastview won twice Saturday, and gained a tie in another match. Through four meets Eastview stands 2-1-1.

"We're pleased with the effort our guys are giving out there and the results have been good," said Eastview head coach Kurt Habeck. "We got to see some pretty good opponents and we wrestled well."

Eastview opened the season with a 63-6 loss to Lake Conference and Minnesota powerhouse Apple Valley. Despite the lopsided loss the Lightning rebounded swiftly. Eastview tied St. Thomas Academy 34-34, defeated Hopkins 45-27 and beat Monticello 42-36 with a win at heavyweight.

"We got a big win from ninth-grader David Pudwill to pull out the win," Habeck said. "We thought we could have picked up a few points here and there against St. Thomas and have won, but other than that, the day went really well for us."

Eastview's Tony Rodin finished fourth in the state tournament last season and he's off to another outstanding start. Rodin's pin at 152 provided the Lightning with their lone points against Apple Valley, and Rodin won a few more times Saturday.

Sophomore Adam Fokken, who won 23 times last season and returns as an honorable mention All-Lake Conference selection, has three wins this year. Fokken wrestles at 171 and Habeck said the tenth-grader is evolving into one of the area's best wrestlers. Fokken won 23 times as a ninth-grader.

Junior Matt Davis picked up three wins over the weekend. Eastview juniors Nate Ernst, Jim Maloney, Brad Okonek and Sean Richards solidify the Lightning lineup.

Senior Matt McDonald is another honorable mention All-Lake selection and he won 14 times last season. Senior Joe Theisen provides the Lightning with another experienced athlete and sophomore Davis Rasmussen gives them more youthful energy.

"We have a good combination of young kids and older kids," Habeck said. "It's sounds boring, but we just have to focus on becoming better wrestlers every day. No matter what year or ability level, if every kid just focuses on that we'll be a better team by the end of the season."

The Eastview High wrestling team responded with a win after two hard-fought losses in its Eastview Tournament.

The Lightning opened with a loss to last season's tournament champion Paynesville 62-5, lost to St. Cloud Tech 36-23, then defeated Arlington 39-24.

The Lightning have doubled their win total from last season's inaugural run in their overall and Lake Conference records. Eastview is 6-11-1 overall and 2-5 in the conference.

For the second year Paynesville won the tournament over section foe Dassel-Cokato. Last year Dassel-Cokato rebounded to win the section and state Class A title.

"It was another outstanding event for us this year; we brought in a lot of top-quality teams," said Eastview head coach Kurt Habeck. "We've already doubled last year's output, so we feel good about where this program is heading."

The Lightning grabbed a win over Chaska on Friday, 50-18. It was the second season the Lightning have bettered the Hawks.

Adam Fokken got Eastview's lone win against Paynesville and won again against St. Cloud Tech, a team which also was rated earlier this season. The 171-pound sophomore was rested against Arlington because of the rule that allows only 30 matches before sections, Habeck said. Fokken is 21-3.

At 125 Jim Maloney got his first-ever win Friday and responded with another Saturday. Brad O'Konek beat an opponent with a 19-1 record and Nick Thompson, Matt McDonald and Joe Theisen also wrestled well.

"We had a big win over Eden Prairie and we wrestled well again this weekend," Habeck said. "Hopefully this will give us a lift and catapult us into sections."

Eastview collects 2 conference wins

The Eastview Lightning collected a couple of Lake Conference wins to improve their record to 2-6-1 in the conference and 6-12-1 overall.

Eastview defeated Eden Prairie 34-28 Jan. 15 and Chaska 50-18 Jan. 22.

The Lightning also placed seventh in their home invitational Jan. 23. The host team won one of three matches, defeating Arlington 29-24.

On Jan. 30 the team traveled to Brookings, S.D., to take part in the Bobcat Invitational. Coach Kurt Habeck said there were four wrestlers who placed in the invitational. Senior Tony Rodin and sophomore Adam Fokken both placed third. Junior Nate Ernst finished in sixth place and Adam Miller finished seventh.

Fokken is currently leading the team in wins with 25.

Habeck said there were a number of top quality teams from South Dakota at the invitational, along with a team from Iowa.

Right now, Eastview is preparing for sections Feb. 13, Habeck said.

"Our goal is to win at least one match at sections," he said.

After that the team will be getting ready for individual sections, Habeck said.

The Lightning are in Section IV and the team competition will take place at Burnsville

Apple Valley has been the dominant team in area wrestling for many years, but teams from Eastview and Lakeville also have competitive programs this season.

Both the Lightning and the Panthers have strong schedules, which the coaching staff from the two teams hopes will pay off come section time.

Eastview bounces back from tough start

Eastview's wrestling coach Kurt Habeck is hoping to build off the Lightning's first Lake Conference win against Eden Prairie Jan. 15.

After dropping the first five conference matches this season, Eastview won seven matches, including four pins, to win 34-28.

Habeck said he is looking for the win over Eden Prairie to be something his team can rally around as the season begins to wind down.

"That was a big win for us," Habeck said. "I feel we are getting better as a team."

Scoring pins for the Lightning against Eden Prairie were Mike Fornicoia at 103 pounds, Brad Okonek at 145 pounds, Nate Ernst at 160 pounds and Adam Miller at 189 pounds.

Also collecting wins for Eastview were Nick Thompson (7-1) at 152 pounds, David Rasmussen (12-1) at 135 pounds and Adam Fokken (7-

4) at 171 pounds.

Habeck said Fokken won the most exciting match of the evening, beating a two-time state qualifier. Fokken had to battle back the entire match and came back from a 4-2 deficit in the third period, Habeck said.

Eastview was able to get the win despite not having its top wrestler in the line-up.

Senior captain Tony Rodin at 152 pounds was out with an injury against Eden Prairie.

Rodin, who was fourth in state last year, has posted a 15-3 record this season.

"He is a leader by example," Habeck said.

Habeck said senior leadership from Rodin has been great, since of the 50 wrestlers out for the sport, only four are seniors and only two wrestle on varsity.

One of the young stars on the Lightning team is Fokken, a sophomore. He has posted an 18-3 record.

Eastview is 4-9-1 in its second season as a wrestling program.

"Right now we are happy with where we are," Habeck said. "Our attitude and effort has been great."

Habeck said the team as a whole has been improving every day and he feels the team is making progress.

Habeck said he gives credit for the success the team has had this season to all of his assistant coaches.

Assistant coaches on the Lightning team this season are Nick Fornicoia, Todd Beach, Travis Lee, Mike Griffith, Jeremy Illg and Brent Odenbrett.

In a recent triangular meet Jan. 8, Eastview lost tough matches to Bloomington Jefferson 42-23 and to Rosemount 37-23.

Fokken had one pin and one technical fall victory at the triangular.

Matt Davis recorded a pin at 130 pounds and Rodin won 7-1 at 152 pounds.

The Lightning hosted its eight-team home invitational Jan. 23.

As the team gets ready for sections, Habeck said his 50-member team is healthy and starting to gel as a group.

Area wrestlers win 11 sectional titles

By WADE PETRICH

Several area wrestling squads will be sending individuals to the state meet Feb. 25-27.

Apple Valley led the way by sending nine individuals to the state meet.

Burnsville, Eastview, Lakeville, Eagan and Farmington also will be sending individuals to the state meet.

Section 6AAA

Several area wrestlers finished first or second in the section and qualified for the state meet in Section 6AAA.

The only two weight classes not having local wrestlers were 152 pounds and 160 pounds.

At 103 pounds, Joe Staska of Apple Valley finished first and will be heading to state.

Apple Valley's Mark Buck was first at 112 pounds.

Matt Shankey of Apple Valley was first and Burnsville's Scott Ellingson was second at 119 pounds.

At 125 pounds, Jacob Schlotke of Apple Valley finished second.

Lucas Christianson of Apple Valley was first at 130 pounds.

Apple Valley's Justin Meyer was first at 135 pounds.

At 140 pounds, Eastview's Tony Rodin was first.

David Garrison took top honors for Apple Valley at 145 pounds.

Eastview's Adam Fokken was second at 171 pounds.

At 189 pounds and in the heavyweight class, Apple Valley's Jaeck Horton and Chad Redmann, respectively, took top honors.

The sectional meet took place at Eastview High School Feb. 19-20.

Apple Valley coach Jim Jackson said nine individuals and eight section champs is the most the Eagles have sent to the state tournament.

Jackson said he was extremely pleased with how his wrestlers did.

Apple Valley had 12 wrestlers place in the top three in the section and 13 in the top five.

"We are wrestling well right now," Jackson said.

Burnsville coach Bill Soderholm said he was happy to see Ellingson qualify for his first state meet.

"I was real proud of Scott, he wrestled well," Soderholm said.

But Soderholm said he hoped two or three other Blaze wrestlers would have gone on as well.

Lee Barnett just missed going to state, finishing third at 130 pounds.

Soderholm said Mike Hermann also wrestled well at 189 pounds, but did not qualify.

Eastview coach Kurt Habeck said he was pleased to see nine wrestlers win a match and six place.

Rodin will be making his second trip to the state tournament after becoming the first Lightning wrestler to win a section individual title. His record is 23-4 this year and Habeck said Rodin is looking to improve on his fourth place finish last year.

"The experience from last year will help him," Habeck said. "He (Rodin) has been there before and knows what it takes."

Habeck also said Fokken should do well in his first trip to the state tournament.

Fokken has the most wins on the team with a 30-5 record and as a sophomore already has 73 career wins.

"They (Rodin and Fokken) are both in a position where they can win some matches," Habeck said.

Eastview's Rodin, Fokken, Burnsville's Christianson also advance to state

By Jason Amadeck
Sun Newspapers

It looked like the Apple Valley High wrestling program did well last week when it outscored the section 175-9 on its way to the title. Saturday at Eastview High, the Eagles demonstrated even 17-time champions get better.

Apple Valley set a school record, winning eight of 13 individual titles in the Section 6AAA meet.

"These kids work very hard and some of that hard work is paying off for them right now," said Apple Valley High head coach Jim Jackson. "Right now they're very focused and they are wrestling very well."

It isn't often that one team beats the rest of the section's best combined. But if the meet had been scored as team competition, with the Eagles facing all other wrestlers, Apple Valley would not only have won, but won going away.

The Eagles captured titles in the first three weight classes, beginning with 103-pounder Joe Straska. Mark Buck was the champion at 112 and Matt Shankey won at 119.

"Straska, Buck and Shankey were dominant," Jackson said. "All our guys wrestled well, but those guys just went out there and took it to their opponents."

Jacob Schlottke had to wrestle the state's top wrestler at 125 pounds, Jamell Tidwell of Bloomington Kennedy. Schlottke didn't quite manage the victory, but his 13-16 loss was good enough for second place. As the ninth Apple Valley wrestler headed to state, Schlottke will be looking for a rematch with Tidwell.

Lucas Christianson was the champion at 130 pounds and Justin Meyer won at 135. David Garrison was outstanding, as he wrestled his way to the 145-pound title.

At 189 pounds Jareck Horton won the title by defeating Kennedy's Sam Seal. Horton is 5-1 lifetime against Seal after beating him 7-4 Saturday. Seal defeated Horton earlier this season.

"I was nervous going in, I'll admit that," Horton said. "But I was confident at the same time, too. I thought if I wrestled my style, I would win, and it worked out."

At heavyweight, Eagle junior Ostad Redmana continued his blazing streak with a title. Travis Yamanaka, Chad Polus, Matt Kloos and Mason Stedman all battled for the Eagles and just missed qualification, but all placed.

Apple Valley opens team and individual competition at the state tourney Thursday.

Eastview's Tony Rodin will return to state after a championship performance at 140 pounds. Teammate Adam Fokken finished second at 171 behind Eden Prairie's Jerimiah Mostrom and qualified for state.

Burnsville's Scott Ellingson qualified for state at 119 pounds.
