

January 22, 2021

Attn: Graduate Medical Education Committee, Residency Program Directors

From: Abigail Litwiller, MD – Associate Dean, GME & Designated Institutional Official
Gia Mac – Senior Director, Graduate Medical Education

Subject: Resident Stipends in Fiscal/Academic Year 2022

The resident stipends will increase approximately 2.0% in the 2021-2022 fiscal/academic year. The new stipends by program year are as follows:

	PGY 1	PGY 2	PGY 3	PGY 4	PGY 5	PGY 6	PGY 7	PGY 8
Annual	$ 59,890.00	$ 61,996.00	$ 64,113.00	$ 66,454.00	$ 69,229.00	$ 71,959.00	$ 74,334.00	$ 76,733.00
Monthly	$ 4,990.83	$ 5,166.33	$ 5,342.75	$ 5,537.83	$ 5,769.08	$ 5,996.58	$ 6,194.50	$ 6,394.42
Annual Educational Allowance* *taxable	$ 500.00	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,000.00	$ 1,000.00

The reimbursement of dependent health insurance cost will continue as it was implemented effective July 1, 1999. A resident may select any health insurance plan offered by UIC, but any cost beyond the approved reimbursement amount will be borne by the resident. For the current fiscal year (FY21), the maximum reimbursement is $96 for one dependent and $132 for two or more dependents. This is subject to change in FY 2022.

cc: Residency Coordinators
Hospital Finance
Participating Sites