Florida "Sunshine" Chapter

The Florida Chapter would like to congratulate incoming freshman, Avari Marshall and wish him the best during his time at DSU. On Saturday July 9th, Florida Chapter Recording Secretary, Gail Obas and Chapter President, Arnold Nearn attended the very popular South Florida Annual HBCU Picnic held on the campus of Florida Memorial University. At the picnic they met Mr.

Avari Marshall who enthusiastically informed them that he will be attending Delaware State University this coming fall to play football and run track on a full scholarship. Avari chose DSU because he felt he could be himself as compared to the other schools he and his mom visited. The Sunshine Chapter proudly embraces this young man, will monitor his progress and assist as needed.

Chaplain's Chat

Some words of inspiration shared by our DSUAA Chaplain throughout the month of July

Pray with purpose, Hornets... for everyone, everywhere!

Let's begin the week pondering
this question, Hornets!
Forgiveness is a choice!

Give yourself permission to live free.
Free from fear of other peoples opinions. Free from the need for validation and approval. Free to feel your emotions, and free to be yourself

It's a new week, Hornets!
Be at peace...all is well!
