Sporting Events - Alma Mater

*Hail Alma Mater
Thy children greet Thee
Greet Thee with loyalty,
love, strength and truth
Here in Thine ancient halls
O'er Thy plains so verdant
Thou art guide in the pathways of youth.
From the Broad world without
Come Thy sons and daughters
Bearing our laurels to lay at Thy shrine
E'er shall we heed Thy call
Ne'er shall we fail Thee
Love Alma Mater,
May God Bless Thee and Thine*

We want to encourage you to stay at the end of DSU Sporting events and sing the Alma Mater together.

John Ridgeway Class of 1975

John Ridgeway retired in March 2019 as the Corporate Manager of Toyota Financial Services (TFS) in Owings Mills, Maryland. His primary responsibility was managing over 500 team members, who provide services to both Toyota and Lexus customers and dealers on the East Coast.

John has over 44 years of Executive Management experience primary in operations. Prior to joining TFS, John served as Senior Vice President of Card Services at Bank of America and National Director of Field Operations at Sears Credit. In these roles he has led a legacy of improving business initiatives and made a keen interest in developing managers.

John embraces the two pillars of Toyota which is “respect for people” and “continuous improvement”. John is committed to employing a diverse work place and has an interpersonal style of managing and connecting with all levels of associates. In addition to John’s primary responsibility of managing operations, John served on the Chairman’s Diversity Council at Sears, built continuous improvement programs (Kaizen) in the Customer Service Centers, led several initiatives that improved associate engagement, and process improvements. He was one of the pioneers at Sears Credit launch of Rapid Credit. Through his leadership the Baltimore CSCE launched Witt, the first Business Partnering Group in TFS and Field Operations. At the time of his retirement John inspired all of the Service Operation Centers to establish a Business Partnering Group increasing the number to eight.

During his time at Toyota, John supported several ongoing community service initiatives in the Baltimore area. Some of these initiatives include corporate sponsorship of the annual Owings Mills, Reisterstown, Chamber of Commerce Blooming 5K runs in support of Lifebridge Health’s Cancer and Infusion Centers at Sinai and Northwest hospital, Boys and Girls club of Metropolitan Baltimore, Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland, Graves Honor Program, Morgan State University, Tom Joyner Foundation HBCU School of the Month and Junior Achievement. Through the support of TFS and its mentorship of the youth at James McHenry Elementary School John supported the company’s efforts in enhancing the school’s goal to receive their certification for the Maryland “No Child Left Behind” Act. He served on the President’s Advisory Council for Stevenson University, Baltimore County Workforce Development Board, and National Boys and Girls Club Taskforce for Youth Employment.

John is active in numerous civic and philanthropic organizations to include Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity (Boulé), Groove Phi Groove Social Fellowship Inc., Beta Gamma Sigma National Honor Society, NAACP (lifetime member), and Masonic Lodge #21.

Currently, John Ridgeway is the Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Delaware State University. He is also on the foundation board of the Maryland-Pennsula United Methodist Church. John has been recognized by several organizations to include NAACP, Metro Baltimore County Boys and Girls Club and Delaware State University (National Alumni Association, New Castle Alumni Association, and the College of Business). He has also been recognized as distinguished alumni by the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and inducted in Delaware State University Athletic’s HOF.

DSU battles Route 1 Rival by Bernard W. Carr

The Delaware State University men's basketball team gave it the old college try, but came up short in the Route 1 Rivalry basketball game against in-state opponent University of Delaware. The game was played in a packed gym at Memorial Hall on Thursday, December 2, 2021. The Hornets fell short by a score of 48-54, in spite of scoring the game's last 9 points. The Hornets went in at half-time down by 6 points, 20-26. It was the 5th lost in this early season leaving the team with a 2-5 record. Delaware has a record of 6-3. The slow-paced game allowed the Hornets to stay close, trailing by as little as 9 points in the second half. Hornets senior Myles Carter scored a game-high 17 points, but DSU hit only 34 percent as a team (16-47), and had 23 turnovers. DSU trails in the rivalry series 5-16.

DSU is playing it's season under first year coach Stan Waterman, who played basketball at UD "They played hard right until the end. The guys didn't quit. We're shorthanded, we're injured, but we're fighting." Covid-19 health and safety protocol is wreaking havoc on many sport teams and schedules. Currently the team has an overall record of 2-10, and is on pause until a home game against North Carolina Central University on Saturday, January 22, 2022. Game time is scheduled for 4:30pm after the women's game at 2:00pm.
