Noises Off
By: Michael Frayn

Called "the funniest farce ever written," Noises Off presents a manic menagerie of itinerant actors rehearsing a flop called Nothing's On. Doors slamming, on and offstage intrigue, and an errant herring all figure in the plot of this hilarious and classically comic play.

Submit your audition form by August 3rd to be considered for a role.

WHO'S WHO

Daniel Kasenberg

as Professor Plum

Daniel is tickled pink to be portraying Professor Plum in Dramatically Incorrect's production of Clue! After more than a decade of cruelly depriving himself of the joy of being on stage, he decided to slowly get back into theatre as a New Year's resolution in 2018, and since then he has appeared in Arlington Friends of the Drama's productions of Witness for the Prosecution and The Addams Family, and joined the DITGDC family to play Ja'Far in Twisted. An incorrigible Canadian, Daniel moved to the Boston area to pursue a PhD in computer science at Tufts, where he spends his days researching how to give robots ethical reasoning capabilities. Special thanks to the phenomenal cast and crew, family and friends.

Kym Wallace

as Singing Telegram Girl

Kym is excited to be part of DITGDC's production of Clue. Kym is a 32 year old mother of 3, and loves spending time with her kids. In her spare time, you can find Kym inside the dance studio, teaching her students dance. Dance is Kym's passion, and she has been dancing for almost 30 years. Kym is thankful to the whole cast, and wishes everyone a great performance.

Leo Duke

as Mr. Boddy

Leo Duke is an Actor from the New England Area. He has appeared in shows such as Into The Woods (Baker), Mary Poppins (Robertson Ay), and A Year With Frog and Toad (Toad). Apart from Clue, he is also playing the role of Aladdin in Twisted with DITGDC. When he is not doing theatre he is writing original music for his band Crimson Wing, or attending school at the University of Massachusetts in Lowell. He hopes you enjoy figuring out who killed hi- wait what? IG- Leo Duke Music

By day, Lex Blair works as a manager for a rental store. But after 2pm, they look to fight the formalities of business with performing. Lex Blair recently returned from their hiatus of the theatre world last year and have been busy ever since. Lex has been an active member of the DITGDC community since December of last year. He has appeared in a variety of roles in Starkid's Twisted as the Captain, The Magic of Zoom as Professor Snopes, and Pets in Quarantine as Oreo. Lex recently went into the world of Shakespeare for a charity reading of A Midsummer's Night Dream as Peter Quince and will play Hot Blades Harry in an upcoming production of Urinetown with Acting Out! In addition, they are finishing music on their upcoming album, The Risen Place.

When not on stage, or at work, Michelle enjoys her time with her family and her 3 horses. She would like to thank her husband for supporting her in her passion for theater and for putting up with the late night rehearsals both at the studio and at home when she rehearses her lines and songs for various shows. To the cast she wishes them a fun and thrilling mystery show and hopes they enjoyed the "Shark-fin Soup....."

END NOTES

Note from the Director

I am extremely proud of this production, especially since it is the first play Dramatically Incorrect (DITGDC) has moved from stage to film.

The quality of the cast and crew is outstanding. A truly successful production however, involves more than what is presented to the audience. There were many extra days and long nights of shooting, but through it all we found moments to laugh and enjoy the experience. Thank you for the cooperation, mutual respect, the level of commitment, and teamwork that has been demonstrated by everyone involved. Everyone on and off screen share equally in the pride and success of such an accomplishment. The late nights were worth the end product.

When the Covid-19 pandemic hit, it was just before Dramatically Incorrect was to perform Twisted: An Untold Story of a Royal Vizier. Everyone was perplexed on how to perform in the future. Dramatically Incorrect is nothing if not persistent and driven to bring the arts to the community. Dramatically Incorrect did virtual cabarets, one-acts, and even rehearsals for future shows. Over time and with testing, a few DITGDC members were able to begin to see each other at the studio with masks, sanitizer, and distance.

The health risks associated with Covid-19 are no joke, and we do not take it lightly. Because of that, the cast has gone through self-quarantining, getting tested, monitoring for symptoms, wearing masks until it is time to perform, using copious amounts of sanitizer, and most importantly being forthright with plans to travel or breaking quarantine. The cast has become extended family since they are the only people that are seen outside of their household.

Enjoy our show and thank you all for supporting the arts and Dramatically Incorrect. Without you we would not be where we are today.

Please sit back and enjoy tonight's performance of Clue: On Stage, as you are now a part of Dramatically Incorrect history!
