Our Mission

Hopewell Music connects and empowers the North Minneapolis community through high-quality music programming that is accessible to all, regardless of age, ability, background, or circumstance.

Our Students & Families

About our community

Located in the Webber-Camden neighborhood, Hopewell is part of one of the most diverse and vibrant parts of Minneapolis. 63% of participants in our lesson, ensemble, and outreach programs identify as People of Color. Hopewell Music has a strong sense of family and community, with 149 families enrolled. 49 of those families have more than 1 family member in lessons and ensembles.

"Once you join Hopewell, you're one of them - I felt that immediately after starting lessons." -Hopewell Student

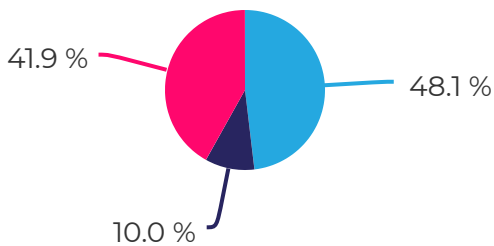

Our Programs

Lesson and Ensemble Programs

160 students total were enrolled in our lessons program and 60 community members participated in our ensemble program in 2019. Participation in our ensembles is free, and we provide scholarships for more than half of our lessons students. Our sliding fee scale is based on the federal school lunch program income guidelines. Our full price lesson rate is $25, and we charge $15 for reduced price students and $0 for full scholarship students. We also offer instrument rentals for lessons students, with reduced rates for scholarship students.
