It couldn't be any more flexible in use, serving as a universal concealed unit for any application. If you prefer, you can wait until the last minute to choose the most suitable KLUDI fitting for your needs, because the functional unit is fully assembled with the selected trim set on delivery.

The concealed unit includes an integrated test and flushing block, saving valuable time during installation. In addition, the integrated flushing set allows more water to flow, resulting in a faster, more thorough flush. It makes flushing the domestic pipelines even easier and enables reliable leak tightness tests in accordance with DIN 1988.

KLUDI, a mid-sized business founded in Germany's Sauerland region in 1926, stands for almost 100 years of experience in the development and manufacture of high-quality bathroom and kitchen fittings.

A close-up photograph of a modern, high-end chrome faucet mounted on a white ceramic sink. The faucet has a tall, curved spout and a sleek, vertical handle. In the foreground, a black toothbrush and a tube of toothpaste are placed on the sink's edge. The background shows a white tiled wall and a large mirror reflecting the faucet. A blue text box is overlaid on the left side of the image.

Our tradition as a fittings specialist drives our ambition to unite premium quality 'made in Germany', innovative technologies and top-class design in KLUDI products. As a result, our fittings are much more than just everyday utensils. Elegantly designed, reliable, sensual and emotional in the water experience they offer, they add quality to the user's life.
