

Prayers

Prayer for Right Relationship With Talents

From the point of light within my heart and mind, I revoke ownership of gifts not my own. I invoke the lesson of releasing desire, and burden myself no more to pursue talents withheld from me by the Creator.

What is mine to own, and what is not of Him? The Lord charges His Holy Spirit to move gracefully within His children, awakening talents and blessings which only He can authorize. What then is it within me which wrongfully requests gifts not my own?

The materialism of this physical world offers nothing but activation of the 5 physical senses, feeding temporal respite from true spiritual growth. How then to maneuver the minefield of desire and achievement, of gain and loss? As physical creatures we require food, clothing and shelter from the elements. After that, what is truly needed? Such is the challenge of a spiritual existence in a physical world!

In the name of Christ, of She who moves as the Holy Spirit, of the Saints and Archangels, I invoke Sophia, the wisdom of discernment and the blessing of gnosis, knowledge and peace. May the spirit of truth move gracefully through my choices, humbling my resistance and blessing me with peace of mind...a peace gifted solely from obeisance to God's Will. Amen.