GET READING LOG SIGNED - SHOW TO ME ON TUESDAY. (NO SCHOOL ON MONDAY!)

WRITING FYI

We have been been working on our information essay. Research is done, and the introduction is done. We'll start writing our supporting paragraphs this week. To see examples for all these paragraphs, check out my model on the website.

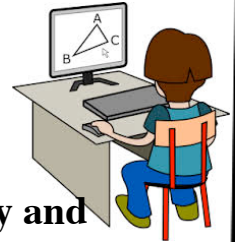

Book Clubs

This week we are reading our "second chunk" for book clubs.

We are continuing to focus on "under the ocean" thinking. For Friday's Check-In, make sure you have decided the Top 4 things that happened in the chunk and filled out your reading log. It helps to have book talks with friends and mom/dad. Be ready to discuss WHY your choices were important.

CAASPP Test

We will be continuing to take the CAASPP test THIS WEEK on Monday and Tuesday.

As a reminder, this test is untimed. Any missed tests will be made up at school.

Also, make sure not to forget ear buds or head phones at home.

Thanks so much for trying to avoid missing school in the mornings or being tardy.

Please continue to get a good night's sleep and eat a healthy breakfast.

We are almost done! Hooray!

Because of CAASPP

We are still on a somewhat adjusted school day "normal schedule." All the math we do will be only done at school and what/when isn't predictable. So it's not mentioned on the weekly homework. This is true for all subjects EXCEPT FOR READING.

San Juan Bautista Trip

We are set to go on May 9. Some of you chose to have the school provide the lunch. FYI, please check if you requested this. Otherwise, you will bring a lunch with you.
