Public Comment- Rezin presented all the information pertaining to the Ohio Ave Basketball court project and included the Bricks R Us fundraiser and how that would work. He had pamphlets and presented them to the council and the public so they could see how the program works. Rezin also explained in detail about all the work that was going on and what else would-be taking place in the very near future such as Fence, painting, striping, and sealing. Cindy Lafferty volunteered to donate the nets for the Ohio Ave Basketball project. Charlene asked to check on the amount for the council to approve. Dennis wanted to state that he didn't vote because he didn't know anyone's platform. Dennis also asked again about the parking/Traffic on Illinois Ave. Jennifer Robinson asked the same. Leslie suggested that the traffic advisory committee meet and discuss this. Natalie asked to get a meeting on the Books before July 1st. Jennifer Robinson asked about the boot allowance and how that works per employee.

The meeting adjourned by acclamation at 7:32 pm

Rezin Davis Hudkins IV, Recorder
