INTRODUCTION TO THE CHURCH RECORDS

We have been told that the lists of names are not interesting, in fact they are plain boring! To some of us, the list of names become people who were born, lived; who were happy and sad; who laughed, cried, lived and died.

Imagine what those first pioneers must have seen here on the frontier! What fears they had. This area was a wild and untamed land of animals, Indians, no neighbors only a select few who dared to brave the land, they were far and few between. This church at Church Hill was the only place of worship west of the Conococheague in the 1730s. You are challenged to take your mind back in time and remember these people who had names.

Then there were wars -- The French and Indian, The Pontiac Rebellion, The Revolutionary, The War of 1812 and the terrible Civil War. These same people were all a part of each conflict, the old and young alike. The women and children were left home to take up the duties of the hardy men.

We read of happy times, when the pioneers would get together and help each other; they attended worship all day, there were always the weddings and births to enjoy. There may have been several homes where everyone longed for an invitation to a social affair, such as in "Clifton Hall".

All was not happiness -- there were children born and who died young, diseases were not yet under control, hard work, no indoor facilities, the cold in the winter, the insects in the summer, we could go on and on, but you get the picture.

Now to the purpose of the Church Records. The abstracting is to remind us that others were here to pave the way, to make our lives much easier. In this Two Hundred and Fiftieth year we truly are "WE THE PEOPLE" and we here today cannot let it go by without letting others in the future know "WE WERE HERE" and not just black ink on ~~what~~ paper.

In an undertaking such as this, we feel confident that you will find errors, but they are not intentional, however, it does show you a place to do research.

You will note some names spelled different than today, such as TOD with one D, that is exactly as it appears in the records. Also McClelland and McConnell may have had no d or l on the end of the name. These records may help you in your search for a long lost family.

This Church Record section will be continued in a SUPPLEMENT, at some future date, with the Session's permission. Also, in the Supplement will be an index to this entire book.

This cemetery is located at the intersection of the south end of Legislative Route Number 28065 (Kings Lane), Township Route Number T332 (Findley Road) and Township Route Number T 400 (Churchill Road), in the little village of Church Hill, and in Peters Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania. This cemetery was started by a segment of the Upper West Conococheague Presbyterian Congregation.

This cemetery is rectangular in shape. It is approximately 198 feet long and 149 feet wide.

The cemetery plot is inclosed by a native limestone wall, which is approximately 4½ feet high. There is a large iron gate in the north side of this wall.

This cemetery is no longer in use and is fairly well maintained.

The headstones are arranged in rows extending from the east to the west, most facing north. One grave is marked solely with an iron marker, having the initials A. B. on it. There are 9 graves marked with badly weathered wooden boards for headstones. There are 28 graves marked with fieldstones and at least 200 unmarked graves. The information for those entries marked with an asterisk (*), was taken from records on file in the Kitchochinny Historical Society Library, Chambersburg, Pennsylvania. Headstones, bearing this information, could not be found, when the author examined this cemetery.

The following information was found on the remaining headstones and other markers, when this cemetery was examined by John Pflueger, on July 19, 1970.

From: "American Revolutionary Soldiers of Franklin County, Pennsylvania" (compiled by Virginia S. Fendrick) THE WHITE CHURCH GRAVEYARD

from

Churches of the Valley by the Rev. Alfred Nevin

1852

Among the first objects which claimed the attention of the early settlers in their new home, was the organization of a church according to the faith of their fathers. This took place, A.D. 1738, and was styled, "Upper West Conococheague," which covered about fourteen miles square. The two most prominent places selected were, the one, near what is now known by the name of Waddell's Graveyard, and which was then opened for interments in anticipation of the building being erected there, and the other the place where it now stands. In a spirit of compromise, and as being the most central and eligible, the latter place was chosen.
