One of my favorite traditions is the lighting of the Advent wreath. As soon as the church year comes to an end (this year it ends on December 2, which is the latest day it can end), our family brings up the Rubbermaid tote from the basement labeled “Advent,” and we place our Advent wreath in the center of our table to serve as the focus of our family devotions for the month ahead. Each night, at the end of dinner, we sing, read a devotion, and light the appropriate candles to help anticipate the coming of our Savior. It is a beautiful reminder of the promise that Christ is the light in the darkness, that the celebration of his birth allows us to practice the celebration of his second coming (which has been the focus of the readings for the last three Sundays of November), and that our calling as Christians on this side of Easter is the same as those who lived on the other side of Easter- to wait with anticipation for the fulfillment of the promises God has made to his people. Waiting in this anticipation is the life of faith. It takes faith to wait because you are trusting (an act of faith) that God will be true to his character and what he has revealed about himself by keeping the promises he has made to his people. You have faith that he will do what he has said because you know the history of how he has kept his word in the past.

The great part of Advent is that it cannot be rushed. Unlike Christmas, that is celebrated all month long (or longer- my outdoor Christmas lights have been on since November 4), the season of Advent demands that you let it unfold at its own pace. If we were to light all the Advent candles on the first Sunday, it wouldn't look right or feel right because we would have missed the point of the waiting, we would have missed the anticipation of the season. So we wait, and in waiting join the countless hosts, living in faith, waiting for God to keep his Word.

Since returning from Greece, several people have asked what was my favorite part of the trip or what did I find most interesting about the journey. The answer to both questions is the same. What I found most interesting was the sense of the crushing weight of history that bears down on you as you visit the ruins of ancient cities and civilizations. When we were standing in front of the library at Ephesus, or in the cave where John wrote Revelation, or at the Acropolis in Athens, you can't help but be overcome by the awe of what people built thousands of years ago and the number of people who have stood where you are standing. Time and again, during that history, the church has called out, “How long O Lord?” as it was facing persecution, turbulence, war, and all the other hardships that come with life in this world. Each time, God has preserved his people but he has also told them to wait. Wait because the fullness of time has not yet come. Wait, because in his mercy, he is giving more people time to repent. Wait because only he knows the day and the hour when his son will return in glory. Wait, but be ready, because the day of his coming is drawing ever near.

So we wait. I will bring up the Advent tote for another year, and we will practice looking forward to what is to come because we have faith that it will be as God has promised- beyond expectation.

Blessed Advent,
Pastor Errer

CATECHISM

THE SECOND ARTICLE OF THE APOSTLES' CREED

We all know that advent and Christmas are the times to anticipate and celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. But why is it important that Jesus is the Word incarnate, that is, took on flesh and became human? The Son of God became human to fulfill our obligation to keep the law. He suffered and died to pay the penalty of our sin. Jesus overcame death so that we, too, can be raised from death. As we remember and celebrate the Son of God becoming flesh and dwelling amongst us, we must remember the reason for the blessed eternal hope that is ours in Christ.

What is the Second Article of the Apostles' Creed?

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

What does this mean?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil; not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own and live under Him in His kingdom and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as He is risen from the dead, lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

CHRISTIAN PRESCHOOL

“Nurturing Mind & Spirit”
Helping Families nurture children in Christ and the knowledge of His world.

*I bring you good news of great joy that will be for ALL the people!
Unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a SAVIOR who is Christ the Lord!*

Luke 2:10-11

What a beautiful month of Thanks and Giving, that November was for us. We are so THANKFUL for the opportunities that November brought forth to connect with each of our wonderful FCP families personally, through parent-teacher conferences. We are truly blessed with wonderful family partnerships as we all seek to nurture our preschoolers in both mind and spirit. November also allowed for a special time of GIVING for our FCP Families. We partnered with House of Hope Green Bay, to collect items for homeless children and families in need. We gathered items for an entire week and are truly thankful for the giving spirits that were so moved to join us in this community support event.

Now that December is upon us, we are diligently learning and practicing our songs for our upcoming preschool Christmas program. These little hearts will be singing out for JOY the GOOD NEWS of our Savior's Birth! It's a truly beautiful experience to see the hearts and minds of our preschoolers engage with this beautiful gospel message. Following the program, FCP Friends and Families will be joining together in the Fellowship Hall for some light holiday refreshments and fellowship.

If you haven't already, please scan the QR code listed below and follow us on our Facebook Page to keep in touch with all that continues to happen here at Faith Christian Preschool.

Some upcoming days of excitement for Preschool this month are:

- Tuesday December 12th: FCP Christmas Program, 6:30-7:30pm
- December 18th-Jan 1st: NO SCHOOL - Christmas Break

If you have questions about IRA distributions or non-cash asset transfers as a charitable gift to support the ministry of our congregation, please contact Pastor or Cheryl Roohr.

OFFERING ENVELOPES

2024 Offering Envelopes are available. Numbers have been reassigned for the new year due to many members opting out and switching to electronic giving. Please do not use these envelopes until January, 2024 so you get proper credit. Thank you.

God's Chosen STEWARDS

Earlier this year on Celebration Sunday, we filled out Consecrated Stewards Treasure commitment cards. These commitment cards were a way for each individual/family to reflect on their giving/tithing for the year on what it means to be a good steward of God. Being a good steward of God is a life long journey, using not only treasure, but time and talents as well. As promised, these non-opened envelopes with the commitment cards will be placed into your mailbox in December. We pray that God will bless you and your family through the rest of this year and we look forward to continuing this stewardship journey together.

Thank you,

Tom Thompson -Board of Stewardship

We encourage members of the congregation to participate in this fellowship event. There will be a sign up at the Welcome Center as we are looking for donations of breads, cookies, etc. to enjoy during the Christmas Tea. We will also be looking for helpers to serve and clean up. See you Sunday, December 17th!
