

Muslim Outreach for Anti-Violence

Course Name: Life Skills

Instructor: Ummil-Khair Sameerah Lewis-Diaab

Email: contactus@moavonline.org

Cell: (973) 327 – 3290

Text: As a Man Thinketh – James Allen

ISBN: 978-1-64032-056-7

Course Methodology: Lectures and Speakers

Class Schedule: Thursdays 6pm – 8pm

Check Calendar for course date adjustments

Start Date: May 3, 2018

End Date: July 26, 2018

Job Readiness: Job Counseling Sessions, Resume' Writing, and Job Placement

Costs: $50.00 / $25.00 per month (due first week of each month where applicable)

Instructor Lead Training for approx. 2 months / 8 Sessions

Student's additional costs: Textbook, Personal Journal and Optional Study Materials

Course Description:

This course will assist youth and/or young adults (ages 14 and up) currently in the DCP&P system with the need for self-development. Professionals will present lectures from diverse occupations which in hopes will provide incentives for the youth/young adults to find an interest in particular fields.

Course Modules:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|------------------------|
| 1. Life Skills Introduction | 5. Financial Budgeting |
| 2. Health Issues | 6. Juvenile Law |
| 3. Academics | 7. Career Development |
| 4. Home Economics | 8. Entrepreneurship |

This course encourages self-development with motivational self-help, inspiration, counseling sessions, and other successful techniques. Upon completion of the above modules there will be a graduation with closure of advocating for housing.