

Information for post-treatment care after injection with AQUALYX™

- Do not expose any treated area to extreme temperature from direct heat or excessive cold. Heat sources that should be avoided include direct sunlight and use of a sauna.
- Do not partake in physical exercise for 5 days.
- Cosmetics should not be applied to any area treated for at least 12 hours.
- Do not use any anti-inflammatory drugs (Ibuprofen etc.) only paracetamol.
- Note that the appearance of bruising may affect the Aqualyx area.
- Other effects may include sensations of itching/burning, pressure/aches, minor pain and swelling
- Drink plenty of fluids to help flush your system quickly.
- Wear compression items for the first 2/3 days after treatment
- You can massage the area to speed up the process.