

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT

Painting, Drawing, Sculpture

Superintendents: Snake River Artisans

See page 1 for General Rules and Regulations for Open Class Exhibits and the payment of premiums.

No entry fee.

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT RULES

1. All art will be accepted as long as the works have not been previously entered in competition at the Gooding County Fair. Entries must be signed by the artist. Names will be covered during judging.
2. Division I (Experienced Artists) and Division II (Amateur Artists): All work must be adequately framed, or hangable if not framed, and wired for hanging – no saw tooth hangers are allowed because they are not compatible with the hanging system we have in the building. All artwork is judged on neatness and framing.
3. Youth Division entries must be mounted on foam board or poster board if not framed. If not, they can not be displayed and will not be accepted.
4. Entries will be received Monday, August 15 from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm. Late work will not be accepted. Entrants or their representatives must be present at entering.
5. Special Awards are as follows, with additional premiums given by the Snake River Artisans:
  - a. Division I: Best of Fair will be awarded. 1st and 2nd Runners-up will also be chosen.
  - b. Division II: Best of Division will be awarded.
  - c. Division III: (Youth) Best of Division will be awarded a $10 premium, 1st Runner-up will receive a $7 premium and 2nd Runner-up will receive a $5 premium.
  - d. Peoples' Choice (voted on by the public) will be awarded in all three divisions
6. Care will be taken to promote the safety of the exhibits in this department and in no way will the Fair's management, the supervisors, or their volunteers be responsible for damage to or loss of an exhibit.
7. It is the decision of the artist which Division, Group or Class to place his/her entry. An exhibitor may enter only two entries per class, with a limit of ten entries per artist.

DIVISION I – EXPERIENCED ARTISTS OR PROFESSIONALS

Entries in this division must be original artwork, defined as that done from imagination, model, actual location, or from photos taken by artist.

DIVISION II – AMATEUR

Entries in this division can be from a student or beginning artist. A high school student may enter this division if they choose.

For judging purposes, Divisions I and II are separated into groups as follows:

- A. Oil/Acrylic
- B. Watercolor
- C. Drawing
- D. Digital
- E. Sculpture
- F. Miniature (50 square inches including frame)
