*****HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY EDITION*****

NOTE FROM PENNY MOB PRESIDENT

On the 7th of April was our Annual Spring Picnic. The weather was perfect! Sunny and a cool breeze made for a terrific picnic. Twenty one Mobsters attended, enjoying hamburgers, hot dogs and all the dishes provided by the members. A big "Thank You" to our cooks; Jim M. & Bob A. The "Spark Plug Toss" game was a hit! Two teams were formed to see who could toss the most spark plugs in a tool box. Vicki L. seemed to be the one to watch. This month we will be celebrating "Mother's Day." A "Mother's Day" basket will be filled with goodies as a raffle to be won by some lucky Mobster. On May 11th, the Alzheimer Foundation will be raffling off a beautiful '69 Coronet R/T. This is always a good show. It will be held at the Muscle Car Museum once again.

Take care and remember, "Mopars and All Cars"
Penny

President Rachel Steps Down

At the last meeting, Rachel informed the club she was stepping down as President due to 2 planned surgeries. She announced that myself would be filling the position upon approval of the club. Vote was taken and approval met. A "Thank You" Rachel for all your work & time over the past months as OUR CLUB President.

ON A SAD NOTE

On April 4, we lost a long time Mobster, Bob Moody.

Bob and Judy Moody

Bob was an active member for many years. He joined in cruises and car shows and helped with our “Mopar Super Swap” selling our MOB t-shirts and also with soda & water sales. He was an avid Mopar owner; enjoying his '64 & '67 Plymouth Sport Fury Convertibles and his 2 Dodge Hemi Magnums. Thank You Bob for the wonderful memories you leave behind. May you know that your MOB family misses you dearly. Our deepest sympathies to Judy and the family.

ONE LINERS

What do you call it when one finger steers your car?

A “thumb” drive.
