

YORK LUCKY CATS ALE TRAIL

A remnant of York's medieval past are a selection of cat statues and sculpture that adorn buildings throughout the City which were originally supposed to scare off mice and rats that could carry plague. In recent years York Lucky Cats has compiled all their locations with the popular York Cat Trail, this map is designed to be used in conjunction with theirs so you can go on a cat hunt and visit some fine York pubs along the way.

www.yorkluckycats.co.uk

100m 200m 300m 400m 500m