The Knights of Columbus will be leading the recitation of the rosary after Masses this weekend (Jan 27/28). All are welcome to join!

Eucharistic Revival! You are invited to join Deacon Tom Martin to read and discuss Bishop Robert Barron's book: This Is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival. The first meeting will be at 9:15, Sunday, February 4th, in the lower level of the church. A copy of this book can be found in the former Prince of Peace library, which is now a meeting room on the lower level. Please take a copy.

Bishop Barron commented, "The book you are about to read is designed to accompany the Eucharistic Revival. I analyze the source and summit of the Christian life according to the categories of meal, sacrifice, and Real Presence. My sincere prayer is that it might help you understand the sacrament of Jesus' Body and Blood more thoroughly, precisely so that you might fall in love with the Lord more completely."

We are the family of God! Let's celebrate Valentine's Day by remembering our elders and honoring their faith in establishing Prince of Peace parish. Please select a heart from the baskets near the lower level entryway and mail a Valentine's card to the elder(s) you chose to remind them that they are a vital part of our church community and to wish them well.

The Knights of Columbus with the One Rose One Life program. We will be passing out prayer cards at the February 3rd and 4th Masses. At this crucial time in history, we fight for those who can't speak for themselves. The Knights will be taking a second collection at these Masses. Thank you for your help!

National Catholic Schools week is celebrated January 28 to February 3. The theme for 2024 is: "Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community."

One of our parish apostolates is Kearney Catholic High School. The mission of KCHS is, "to provide all students a Catholic faith based education to develop academically and spiritually; thereby preparing them to be of service to the church, community, and society."

Due to the great dedication of the parishioners, the administration, teachers, supportive staff, the KCHS foundation, the parish staff, women religious, and priests, we can be proud of the fact that this year KCHS has 360 students! This is incredible!

The pastors of Prince of Peace and St. James parishes are automatically members of the KCHS school board along with the appointed lay board members. The members of the KCH school board from Prince of Peace are Sara Homan, Carrie Rasmussen, and Joey Cochran. Representing St. James are Mike Kathol, Mark McBride, and Melinda Riedel. We can appreciate their dedication to assist us in having one of the finest Catholic schools in the area.

I have the privilege of being educated and a teacher in both the public school and the Catholic school systems. While I have an appreciation for both school systems, the freedom to express the Catholic faith in parochial schools is an awesome and marvelous responsibility.

As we celebrate National Catholic Schools week, let us give thanks and pray for the dedicated teachers, administration, support staff, volunteers, students, and parents who support the Kearney Catholic High School. Let us also give this same praise and thanks to all those who share our Catholic values in their words, deeds and actions, who work or attend the public schools! Thank you for supporting Kearney Catholic High School with your generous financial support!

-Fr. Paul Colling

Bishop Hanefeldt to hold Synodal Listening Sessions

Following the October 2023 gathering for the Synod in Rome, the Secretariat for the Synod of Bishops has asked diocesan bishops to hold listening sessions regarding two "guiding questions" from the Synod. Bishop Hanefeldt has scheduled two listening sessions and is inviting all Catholics, including those who may be inactive in the practice of the faith, to attend and share their perspective. Listening sessions will be held on Tuesday, January 30, from 7:00-8:30pm at Christ the King Church in Gering, and on Tuesday, February 6, from 7:00-8:30PM at Resurrection Church in Grand Island.

The guiding questions upon which you are encouraged to reflect are these:

Where have I seen or experienced successes – and distresses – within the Church's structure (s)/organization/leadership/life that encourage or hinder the mission?

How can the structures and organization of the Church help all the baptized to respond to the call to proclaim the Gospel and to live as a community of love and mercy in Christ?

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him." (Dt 18:18)

Psalm:

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Ps 95)

Second Reading:

An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. (1 Cor 7:34)

Gospel:

The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. (Mk 1:22)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

With one swift command, Jesus freed a man from the possession of evil spirits. He has that same power to banish the shadow of sin from our own lives. Let's invite him into our hearts, asking him to cleanse the darkness he finds there.

Observances for the week of January 28, 2024

Sunday: 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time,
Celebrate Catholic Schools Week

Wednesday: St. John Bosco, Priest

Friday: The Presentation of the Lord,
World Day for Consecrated Life

Saturday: St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr;
St. Ansgar, Bishop

Next Sunday: 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint of the week

St. Ignatius of Antioch, a bishop of Antioch in the first century, was a direct disciple of the apostle John. Despite being thrown to the lions and martyred in Rome's Colosseum for his faith, his teachings and hope for Christian unity live on as early examples of Christian theology.

Prayer for the Youth

Dear Lord,

Be with our young people this week and always — keep them in Your care. Help them to form godly friendships, speak the truth, and know You in the personal way that will challenge, shape, and guide them. Amen.
