Nebraska Catholic Conference

A pro-abortion ballot initiative that will endanger the lives of babies and moms is underway. And we're ready to fight for human dignity.

Pro-abortion groups will soon begin circulating petitions and gathering signatures to inject a right to abortion up to birth in the Nebraska Constitution.

This ballot initiative threatens to completely de-regulate abortion in Nebraska, making it easier and cheaper for the abortion industry to exploit our vulnerable neighbors in difficult circumstances. But the pro-life movement in Nebraska is ready to defeat these efforts and save lives. When you see petitioners, politely take up their time to keep others from engaging and signing and decline to sign.

We need you to get involved in the effort. Join our network at NECatholic.org/TakeAction to learn about volunteer opportunities.

Welcome

Oliver George Hranac child of Philip & Kelly Hranac who was recently baptized at Prince of Peace.

Greetings! Sunday begins the second Sunday of Advent. The readings this weekend are powerful. In the Gospel of St. Mark, John the Baptist reminds us, "to prepare the way of the Lord." Many people are preparing for Christmas through decorating, buying gifts, and festive parties. This is part of our American way of life. Yet, deep inside us, there is a longing for something more that goes beyond the exterior. There is a longing for us to know the Lord. There is a longing to know that God is present to us in these days of shorter nights and colder days.

We are blessed to have Advent to assist us in our spiritual preparation. While the world is merrily singing Christmas carols, in the church we are singing songs that reflect this longing, "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel." Or, "Come Thou Long expected Jesus." Or, "On Jordan's bank the Baptist's Cry".

The scriptures speak about going to the desert. The desert reminds me of barrenness, emptiness, and a place that is dry. Perhaps this might describe someone's spiritual life. Yet, it is in the desert we can find life: blooming cactus, wild birds, and animals that not only survive but also thrive there.

In our world that is full of activities, news, music, tweets, texts, instant messenger, and Facebook, perhaps we can carve some quiet time out for ourselves so we can bring life to the desert of our soul. We can do this through reading the Advent scripture of the day, being still and observing nature, participating in Eucharistic Adoration, or journaling.

For those who find the Advent/Christmas season challenging due to a remembrance of a loss of a loved one or other factors, there is the Blue Christmas prayer service offered December 10 at 3:00 pm. It is an opportunity to have time of remembrance and prayer.

The Advent Retreat, December 16, "Chosen, Blessed, Broken and Shared, our Eucharistic Celebrations shape our Discipleships." Fr. Damian Zuerlein will be our presenter. This is an opportunity for us all to step back from our busy world to have some time of reflection. Please think about attending.

I also encourage you to use these weeks of Advent to nourish the deep longing in your heart by reading the Bible or the little blue book daily, maybe spending some time in the church in front of the tabernacle, the Blessed Sacrament, and carving out some quiet time in your home.

St. John the Baptist's call still applies today, "Prepare the way of the Lord." -Fr. Paul Colling
