Panel of Judges

Judge # 1 - Valerie Saija-Moore

Valerie has had extensive dance training in all theatrical dance styles as well as Aerial Arts. She has trained with the Rythum Plus Dance Company since 1993, and taught since 2004, under the mentorship of Trish Thompson-Creamer. As an accomplished dancer, Valerie has held 8 Canadian Regional Titles, as well as the national title Miss Dance of America 2008 for Dance Masters of America.

As a performer, Valerie has experience in both live theatre and film. As a young choreographer, Valerie has won numerous choreography awards while her students have won many high score awards. She is the teacher of recognition for multiple Canadian regional title winners. To further her dance education, she travels to many workshops and is a certified instructor with Acrobatic Arts and certified member with Dance Masters of Canada, where she sits on the Executive Board as the Chapter Secretary. Recently, Valerie has served as a National Title

Director and has been elected as a National Area Director for Dance Masters of America. She adjudicates for many regional competitions across Ontario as well as Nationally for Dance Masters of America.

Valerie has attained both a Bachelor of Physical Education Honors and a Bachelor of Education degree, with teachable subjects in Physical Education and Mathematics from Brock University and Dance from York University. She is a Permanent Teacher with the HWDSB where she is the Dance Specialist, and Program writer, for HWDSB's new Audition Based Program of the Arts located at Glendale Secondary School. She has choreographed six full Broadway scored musicals for Glendale's Program of the Arts. Valerie's students have successfully pursued professional dance careers in various diverse contexts. Valerie is so proud to be able share her passion with both aspects of her life. Valerie thoroughly enjoys working with teenagers and children where she can share her love of dance.

Judge # 2 - Sam Quinn

Sam Quinn, a Massachusetts native, received his early training under Charlotte Klein and later received his BFA in dance from the University of Arizona. Favorite credits include: Radio City Christmas Spectacular starring The Rockettes, Bad Boys of Dance, River North Dance Chicago, The Intern starring Robert DeNiro and Anne Hathaway, Pitbull and J Balvin industrials, regional musical theatre productions like Kiss Me Kate, Mary Poppins, Footloose and more. Sam organized the viral #boysdancetoo movement in NYC to underscore that dance is for everyone which received national media attention. He was awarded the Arts in Action from New York City in 2020 for his efforts. He has held titles for DMA including Teen Mr. and Mr Dance of New England and was 1st runner up to Mr. Dance of America in 2009. Sam has been judging for over 10 years and is thrilled to be back with DMA Chapter 5. He currently is on faculty at Elite Academy of Dance in Shrewsbury and works full time as publicist representing brands like Target.

Judge # 3 - Tara Iacobucci

Beginning her studies at a young age in all genres of dance, Tara later transitioned into performing a variety of ballets with Ballet RI. Fast forward, Tara became the director of the award-winning dance companies at The Talent Factory in Rhode Island, where many of her students have gone on to accept prestigious scholarships at such places as Marymount Manhattan College, Montclair State University, Elon University, PACE University, as well as professional schooling and companies overseas! She has since continued to be on staff as a choreographer and instructor with The Talent Factory, while also traveling often to share her love of this art around the country. Her choreography was chosen to be a part of the Boston Contemporary Dance Festival during its inaugural year, and she premiered work at the Joyce Theater in NYC. In 2019, Tara had the pleasure of visiting Joffrey Ballet's Jazz & Contemporary Pre-Professional Training Program in New York City to hold her own audition and cast dancers for a piece she choreographed for their end of the season spring show. Tara was thrilled to get the opportunity to expand her knowledge within the industry when taking on, and participating in, a few film projects. The most recent film project was with close friend and inspiration, Andy Pellick, that was graciously promoted by Dance Teacher Magazine. Tara strives to emphasize the importance of never feeling complacent and always remaining a student. Most recently, Tara has taken the role of an Adjunct Instructor of Dance at Dean College in the Fall of 2021.

Special Awards Judge - Michael Taylor

Michael Taylor is celebrating over 35 years as a master teacher, giving seminars, setting original choreographic works and teaching dancers around the world in both the private and public sectors, in addition to college, university and fine arts programs. As a performer, some of his credits include: Gus Giordano Jazz Dance Chicago, serving as associate director and rehearsal choreographer for six years; River North Dance Company, AKASHA Dance Company The Radio City Christmas Spectacular, serving as an assistant choreographer for five years, as well as several theater, fashion and industrial credits to his name, including Papermill Playhouse's Funny Girl, and Disney's Magical Moments in Chicago and Rome, Italy. Michael proudly served as a director and rehearsal choreographer for Royal Caribbean Entertainment, also providing service in the audition and casting departments. Currently sharing his passion for dance teaching, coaching and choreographing in South Florida, Mr. Michael is grateful to be a part numerous internationally recognized performing arts organizations and is thrilled to be here
