

Two Original Plays Designed Especially for Students of English as a New Language

Roald Dahl's short stories

The Landlady and Lamb to the Slaughter

Adapted and directed by Barbara Bregstein

The Landlady

Billy Weaver, a naive young man, checks into a guesthouse for the night.

Lamb to the Slaughter

Mary Maloney commits a shocking crime and tries to cover it up in an unusual way.

A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE

Students participate after each scene by interacting with the presenter's questions.

Students can have the scene repeated if they want to see it again.

In post-performance discussion the audience speaks directly to the characters.

Performance schedule:

Tuesday, March 5 at 10:30 am

Wednesday, March 6 at 10:30 am

Thursday, March 7 at 10:30 am

Friday, March 8 at 10:30 am

Monday, March 11 at 10:30 am

Tuesday, March 12 at 10:30 am

Wednesday, March 13 at 10:30 am

Thursday, March 14 at 6:30 pm

Friday, March 15 at 10:30 am

ALL PERFORMANCES AT
The Chain Theater
312 W 36th STREET, NYC

For information and ticket reservations: 646-733-7685