Showcasing our work...for free!

Programming managers at public libraries, senior centers, and community colleges are invited to sample our work with your audience for free. Twenty of John LeGear's most popular film compilations are featured in this online presentation of "Movie Music Memories" showcase. You'll find it on safe and secure YouTube by clicking available for free.

We normally ask $200 for a live, narrated presentation via Zoom.

For those with a monthly YouTube subscription, this show will play automatically for 70 minutes commercial free (without pop-up ads) when you choose "PLAY ALL." For those without a YouTube subscription, you'll encounter pop-up ads between some selections, which you can skip manually after six seconds if you'd like.

Programmers at public libraries without a YouTube subscription who'd like to share this presentation without pop-up ads might want to consider the "first month free" subscription offer from YouTube. YouTube's monthly subscription thereafter is $13.99. Just a suggestion. We don't work on behalf of YouTube, but greatly appreciate YouTube's help in bringing this presentation to you.

If interested in scheduling one of our 10 movie music shows—live via Zoom and narrated by John LeGear—please email John@TimComm.com or phone John LeGear at 708-431-6919.
