HOMEGROWN COMMUNITY RADIO

KEPW is a new community radio station just on the air in Eugene/Springfield, Oregon. KEPW is a voice for those left unheard by mainstream media. We showcase the wide array of local artists we are lucky to have in our area. We also have Democracy Now and programming in Spanish.

We are a non-commercial independent radio station, which means you will mostly hear programming made by our very own local producers and we will never have any corporate sponsorship.
