Membership

The Treasure Coast Regional League of Cities, Inc. consists of thirteen municipalities located in Indian River, Martin, Okeechobee and St. Lucie Counties, that make up the Treasure Coast.

Our growing, active organization works closely with and is supported by the Florida League of Cities in representing the interests of the Treasure Coast's municipalities to the Florida Legislature, Governor's office and state agencies.

History

The Treasure Coast Regional League of Cities, Inc. was formed in 2004. Mayor Tom White of Vero Beach and Mayor Bob Minsky of Port St. Lucie believed that the cities on the Treasure Coast would be a stronger force in the State of Florida with an organization made up of representatives from all thirteen municipalities.

Home Rule

The Treasure Coast Regional League of Cities, Inc. is a strong advocate of protecting the rights of cities Home Rule as provided for in the Florida Constitution.

Mission Statement

The purposes of the Treasure Coast Regional League of Cities, Inc. (TCRLC) are to promote communication among the municipalities and the municipal leaders of the Treasure Coast region, to foster cooperative action in meeting common needs, provide assistance to individual municipalities, to represent the Treasure Coast area municipalities to the Florida League of Cities, the State Legislature, state agencies, the Office of the Governor and Cabinet, and to promote good municipal government throughout the Treasure Coast.
