STARS

NEW COMPANION DOG & HIGH IN TRIAL!

GCH ARLEQUIN LONE STAR COWBOY CD TD RN HT
and Deb Lyons

I would like to mention the nice judges we had. Cody got his first let from Judge Sharon Redmer, his second leg from Judge Michael Chester and the third leg from Judge Alane L Gomez. But for the icing on the cake, he also went High in Trial when he earned his Companion Dog title.

I like to think that Betsy Keating was aligning the stars and the moon for us, because I think we had better odds of being struck by lightning than going High in Trial. Not too shabby being I home-trained Cody. I am very proud of my boy and I know Betsy is smiling in heaven.

The Lone Star Belgian Tervuren Club Fun Day was held at the home of Cynthia and Jeff in October. Cynthia had planned several games for dogs and people!

First--musical chairs!

In an early round, the people were wild, but the dogs were wilder!

As it turns out, we had a musical chairs EXPERT in the crowd! Gerard hovered around the nearest chair until the music stopped!

And the winner was

NEXT: THE GREAT POTATO RACE!

The first heat pitted Gerard and Becka against Jeff and Cherish.

Almost a photo finish

Where's Jeff's
potato????

(Look closely above
foot!)

In the second heat, Glenda and Streak have an early lead! (And Dennis is getting photos from a different angle.)

The following photos are by Dennis Lyons.

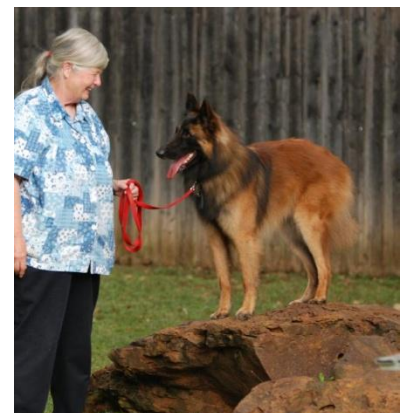

Alo is curious about the potato!
And wants to fetch it!

And Grace wonders why in the world Susan is carrying a potato in a spoon!

Miles tells Sarah he likes to "Perch!"

And the winner of the Potato Race was . . .
Gerard and Becka!

(A pattern is emerging)

Our next contest was a dress-up contest! Cynthia had a hat, a shirt, and a pair of Terv socks for each contestant. We had to run from the starting line to the costumes, dress up our dogs, and then run back.

Grace and Miles say "Now what?????"

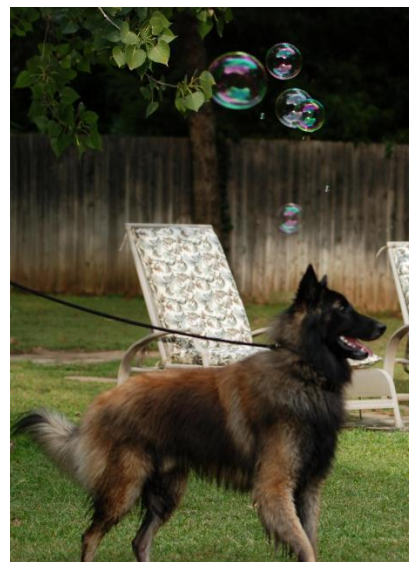

Everyone had the same kind of socks. They didn't stay on the dogs! So everyone would get up some steam, then realize the socks were off the dog!

We had to run back to the socks and try again.

We were all laughing so hard we could hardly run, and I don't remember who won this race!

Alo shows off his socks! (seh photo)

Alo had a great time-- he celebrated his recent Junior Dock Diving title by jumping in the swimming pool! He also enjoyed the giant bubbles!

Grace showed off a trick that Sarah had taught her. She could hold the cup on her nose forever!

Everyone brought food, too, and Pat let us sample her newest favorite drink--uh oh--I've forgotten the name. It was made with grapefruit juice.

Clipper came out to enjoy the mellower part of the party!

It was a grand day!

Hilarious videos are featured on the LSBTC Facebook page!
