The Terv Connection

I caught up with Shirley Stowe last October and got some pictures of the "Terv Connection" for "Riley", a Cavalier King Charles Spaniel who has landed in a home with Tammy Cox, and is tracking with Sarah Helber and "Jordan!"

Tammy and "Riley," Shirley and "Reba," Sarah and "Jordan"

Shirley shares "Riley's" story.

When Bob and I married, I realized my days of having high energy dogs were waning because I was aging and I knew I would be doing a lot of travelling. I still wanted to have a dog I could show in conformation and do some performance activities. As a co-founder of the Texas Pekingese Rescue for 15+ yrs., I knew that breed well but did not want to have to deal with a show Peke's "overdone" coat.

I focused on the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel. Theresa Strader with Milldog Rescue in Colorado Springs had purchased a young male Cavalier at auction. I drove 500+ miles to meet Milldog transport and Riley came to live with us in November '07.

I remember getting him out of his travel crate and putting a leash on him ....he was sooooo undersocialized and fearful he lay on the ground, flat on his tummy, all four feet splayed. I seriously wondered what his chances were for a normal life. Riley initially did not make eye contact so among the things I focused on early was rewarding him when he glanced and our eyes would meet. It was evident from day one that Riley's default response was "freeze and do nothing."

Of all the activities in which I have engaged with my dogs, tracking has become my favorite. Riley could not walk with a harness on for 5 weeks, much less smell the ground and eat a treat! Boy, I was challenged with that roadblock! I tried numerous incentives to get him to move....nothing....One day I just put his harness on when I let him outside with the rest of our pack ...it took him almost 10 minutes to take his first step, but once that breakthrough occurred, he was able to walk and get a treat off a track.

Tammy and I had once spoken of our attraction to Cavaliers so, knowing he would get loads of attention from such a wonderful owner, I approached her about taking him. It was, as they say, a match made in heaven. From a puppy mill life to the high life, Riley could not have a more dedicated, knowledgeable and loving owner. He lives a charmed life these days with Tammy and his "cougar main squeeze", Marquis. He is one lucky, blessed dog.

Right now I am working with a seriously traumatized Pomeranian I pulled from El Paso Animal Control. Where Riley had an "empty" page, Reba had a "wicked or ignorant" human page....but what I have found with rescue dogs, it is progress not perfection that is the goal.

All of us who love dogs know they are the most forgiving and accepting creatures. Years ago, I thought the pinnacle of having a dog would be attaining an OTCH....but somewhere along the way the revelation came, and I learned the part I love is not the showing, not even the winning...it is merely the simple pleasure of watching a dog learn.
