LONE STAR SPOTLIGHT

"Grace!"

by Susan Hervey

Is it possible that Grace's eyebrows are getting gray? That she'll be 10 years old in another month?

If there were a title for Best Walking and Hiking Dog, Grace would be a Grand Champion! As many of you know, I got Grace because she was a challenge. After about six weeks, I decided she was hard of hearing. We scheduled a BAER hearing test and found out she was completely deaf in one ear. She could not tell what direction sounds were coming from, and has never learned to relate to sound.

She understands and loves the sound of the clicker (thank goodness!), but I don't believe there is another sound she consistently responds to positively. When she was about 4 years old, she became scared of thunder, and that rapidly expanded to fear of almost every sound remotely resembling thunder. At the same time, overnight, she became scared of many man-made surfaces. That ended my plans for a performance dog!

However, it opened up much more time for walking and hiking, which we both love. She knows many hand signals, and we train tricks during our walks.

Of course, walking and hiking makes for a tired dog--and a tired dog is a good dog!

(Grace and Desi the cat.)

We started training at Dog City Training Center, where they emphasize shaping--a method of clicker training that empowers the dog to be a partner in training! It's been so good for her. She started out refusing to offer any behaviors, and now is willing to experiment to find which behavior I'm asking for.

She recently passed the BA--a new title from APDT (Association of Pet Dog Trainers).

We do have lots of fun together!

LORI HENDERSON

WELCOME! NEW LSBTC MEMBER LORI HENDERSON!

Lori writes:

I'm a single mom. I own Concept2Creation Graphic and Website Design. I moved to Denton with my son Aaron 3 years ago to be closer to family. 18-year-old Aaron is headed for Texas A&M this fall.

I am staying in Denton with my 20 month old Black Standard Schnauzer Dannye (Saganhaft's On the Naughty List) and 11 month old Belgian Tervuren Gracie (Ch Tacara's vAmazing vGrace). And contrary to her name, she was the klutziest puppy in the litter.

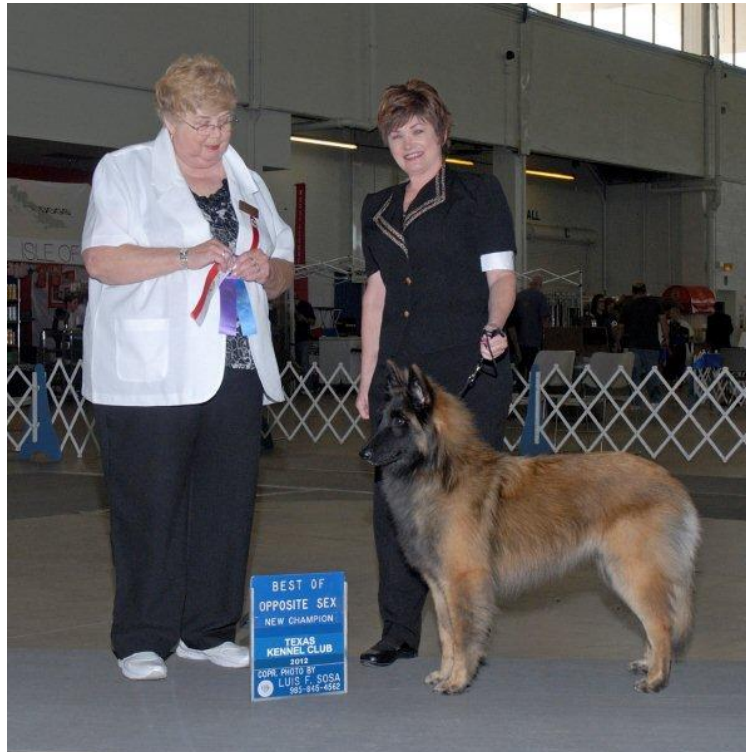

It's been years since I've been in the ring. And even back then I had little ring experience. Needless to say, I was quite overwhelmed when on Gracie's third weekend of showing, she finished her championship July 8th at the Lone Star State Classic. At the time, she was entered in the 6-9 Month Class and finished in spite of me. When the judge kindly put her hand on my shoulder and gently said, "You did just fine." I realized I must have looked as nervous as I felt. And here I thought I had faked it pretty well! (Before this weekend, Gracie's breeder, Linda Newsome, had usually kindly showed her for me.)

Gracie, Danye and I are all agility training at What A Great Dog! training center in Prosper, Texas. In the fall when there are more conformation shows in Texas and Oklahoma, Gracie and I will work on her Grand Championship. Perhaps next time I'll do a better job of faking it after all.

Gracie is a great asset in my work. She will be featured in the Burgess Chiropractic Website (to help portray the doctor doing pet adjusting) and in Six Steps to Housetraining Success (as yet another pretty face) a booklet put out by Maureen Patin of What A Great Dog! training center. Both are projects I'm designing for clients.

I look forward to meeting everyone, learning more about Tervuren, contributing however I can, and of course sampling the good cheer I have heard about.
