RELAY FOR LIFE

The Women of the Moose and Boy Scout Troop 95 joined forces to form a Relay For Life Team that was held at Greenville High School on June 8th in honor of cancer survivor Co-Worker Joyce Smith. Joyce was joined by her caregiver/daughter Karen White along with fellow Co-workers Sr Regent LaShea Rhodes, Jr Regent Terrie Grubbs, Recorder Robin Chapman and Jr Graduate Regent Brenda Couch. During the month of May, co-workers held 50/50 fundraisers and sold luminaries which totaled approximately $500. We wish to thank all the members who contributed to this worthy cause. The money raised will go to support local cancer patients by providing free transportation to chemo treatments, free lodging for patients required to travel out of town, free wigs and other services. Together we can make a difference. The Loyal order of Moose provided key chains as well as Tommy Moose for the Chinese Auction. Jr Governor Brandon Chapman presented four additional Tommy Moose as prizes to participating youth. Boy Scout Troop 95 presented the flag at the beginning of the program and carried it throughout the program during the memory laps. Their efforts did not go unnoticed, as the team received a trophy for Most Team Spirit/Spirited Lap.
