EFFECTIVE JUNE 1ST

The use of any tobacco product or smoking device (including e-cigarettes) is prohibited at any time in the social quarters or lodge home. The use of tobacco products or smoking devices are allowed on Lodge property and in the "Volunteer Lounge" which is the new addition.

Smoking in our lodge home is repeatedly cited as a primary reason why members leave and prospects do not join the Moose. As the percentage of smokers, especially younger individuals, continues to decline, the presence of smoke within our lodge home inhibits our ability to recruit and retain members.

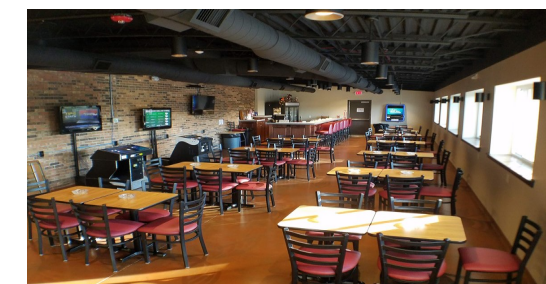

T

The Greenville Moose Lodge 692 hosted their annual scholarship dinner on Saturday, May 11th, to celebrate this years' recipients. Students and their family members were invited to enjoy dinner with the LOOM and WOTM Officers. Each student was awarded a $1,000 scholarship. Seated from (left to right): Victoria Harmon, Greenville High School; Abigail Painter, North Greene High School; and Kayle Sexton; North Greene High School. Standing (left to right): Tyler Smith, South Greene High School; Landon Brown, Brianna Lay, Greenville High School; Madeline Kilday, Greenville High School; and Staci Howard, Morristown Hamblen East High School.
