As a faith community, Notre Dame includes a wide range of parishioners residing throughout the region; families with children enrolled in our school; young adults, retirees and seasonal visitors. Embracing this diversity we will focus on bringing Christ and His teachings – the Good News – alive in the way we live and in how we interact with our parish, our school, and the extended community. We seek to welcome all to the Eucharist, to create better fellowship, to enrich and deepen our spiritual lives, and to fully embrace discipleship and stewardship.

PROCLAIM THE GOOD NEWS

In an inconspicuous room of old Jerusalem, followers of a dead prophet gathered to reflect on their loss. Suddenly, news came of an incredible, not to be believed event. The prophet was alive. Then, the Risen One appeared in their midst. His appearance turned their lives in a completely new direction. His message would guide the rest of their lives. They were to proclaim the Resurrection and God's offer of forgiveness.

FIRST READING St. Peter spoke to (even against) the Temple congregation in Acts 3. When the crowd reacted to a healing, Peter preached the Good News to the crowd and challenged them to convert.

PSALM Psalm 4 addressed the problem of stress. Now is the time for the Lord no matter what is going on in life. God is calling. Do we answer:

SECOND READING How do we know we are close to the Lord? Of course, we cannot know this intimacy with certainty, but that has not stopped many from speculating. In 1 John, the author gave his answer. Faith lived out in charity.

GOSPEL In the gospel of Luke, the two on the road to Emmaus return, only to encounter the Lord among the other disciples. The appearance and message of the Risen Christ proclaimed the hold in creation (not in spite of nature or material universe). It also marked a change in the expectations of his followers. Because of the death and resurrection of the Messiah, divine forgiveness was to be preached. This was the Good News, indeed.

St. Mary Recycle Mission Group has contacted Notre Dame Parish about collecting used religious items for donation to this Mission Group. They will arrange to pick up items at Notre Dame in late June, 2024. If you have religious items you would like to gently dispose of, this may be an option for you.

They do not wish to collect religious books, pamphlets, VHS tapes or some other items which we will specify closer to the date of pick up.

We envision collecting in the church vestibule during the month of June. More information will be forwarded closer to the pick-up date.
