As a faith community, Notre Dame includes a wide range of parishioners residing throughout the region; families with children enrolled in our school; young adults, retirees and seasonal visitors. Embracing this diversity we will focus on bringing Christ and His teachings – the Good News – alive in the way we live and in how we interact with our parish, our school, and the extended community. We seek to welcome all to the Eucharist, to create better fellowship, to enrich and deepen our spiritual lives, and to fully embrace discipleship and stewardship.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jeremia 31:31-34. Psalm 51:3-4, 12-13,14-15. Hebrews 5:7-9. John 12:20-33.

Outsiders Seeking Jesus. Today visitors from Greece (outsiders to the Jews) want to see Jesus who is in the holy city Jerusalem for Passover. This reminds us that everyone, really, looks for God, want to be good, hopes for salvation. This is the impact of the new covenant of which Jeremiah speaks today.

How can I be like Philip and Andrew, and bring others to Jesus?*

 How will I serve Jesus and follow him today?*

 What of my life am I willing to lose for the benefit of eternal life?*

 What is God telling me to do? Will I do it?*

Fifth Sunday in Lent

A Grain of Wheat

A grain of wheat falls to the ground to produce more wheat. One man dies so all can live. Jesus spoke on two levels about life. On the metaphorical level, Jesus spoke of the need to deny the self for the good of others. But Jesus spoke on the literal level. He would die and rise again, so he could share his eternal life with those who believe.

FIRST READING The prophet Jeremiah predicted a new covenant, one of God's intimacy with his people. People would realize this covenant of closeness even in a time of desperation and near despair, for, out of his love for his people, he would forgive them.

PSALM Psalm 51 is the pinnacle of sorrow for a worshipping community. It makes sin and sorrow personal. But it also reaffirms faith in a forgiving God, one whose mercy is overflowing and endless.

SECOND READING In the letter to the Hebrews, the author alluded to Melchizedek, the figure of mythic proportions from the book of Genesis. Because, according to tradition, Melchizedek had no beginning or end, he was a model for the Messiah. The author of the letter saw Jesus as the heavenly High Priest Melchizedek pointed to.

GOSPEL In John 12, Gentiles wanted to see Jesus. The Lord marked this time as the moment of revelation and glory. This was the time for all (including non-Jews) to see the Son of Man lifted up on the cross.
