As a faith community, Notre Dame includes a wide range of parishioners residing throughout the region; families with children enrolled in our school; young adults, retirees and seasonal visitors. Embracing this diversity we will focus on bringing Christ and His teachings – the Good News – alive in the way we live and in how we interact with our parish, our school, and the extended community. We seek to welcome all to the Eucharist, to create better fellowship, to enrich and deepen our spiritual lives, and to fully embrace discipleship and stewardship.

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Cure the Leper

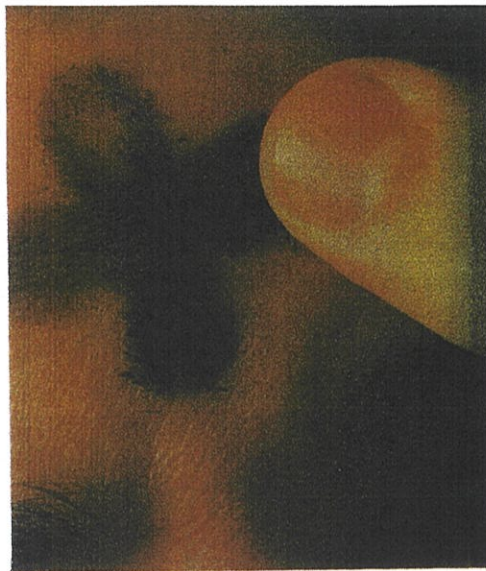

Leprosy was a dreaded, but misunderstood disease. The illness we call leprosy is actually “Hansen’s disease,” a sometimes fatal but non-contagious ailment. Yet, quarantine was the treatment for those in the past. A leper dared to break that quarantine so he could receive a cure from Jesus. By breaking that taboo, both the leper and Jesus became unclean. By breaking that taboo, both did the will of God.

FIRST READING Leviticus laid out treatment for someone with a contagious rash (called “Leprosy” by the ancient writers). The reaction was quarantine. The infected were to live outside the community until their condition improved. The priests were the gates that allowed the sick to leave and reenter the community.

PSALM Psalm 32 was a hymn of repentance, confession, and forgiveness. Blessed is the sinner who repents, then leads others to repentance.

SECOND READING When can we do what we want? That might sound like a self-serving question, but it is a choice we face everyday in Western society. My self interest vs. the common good. However, we don’t have to face this dilemma if we take St. Paul’s advice from his first letter to the Corinthians. Do whatever you like, but do it FOR the glory of God.

GOSPEL A leper approached Jesus with a desire for a cure. Jesus obliged. In fact, Jesus made himself unclean by touching the leper, but that touch healed the sick man. Despite instructions to the contrary, the healed man went out and spread the Good News of Jesus, the one who had God’s power.
