As a faith community, Notre Dame includes a wide range of parishioners residing throughout the region; families with children enrolled in our school; young adults, retirees and seasonal visitors. Embracing this diversity we will focus on bringing Christ and His teachings – the Good News – alive in the way we live and in how we interact with our parish, our school, and the extended community. We seek to welcome all to the Eucharist, to create better fellowship, to enrich and deepen our spiritual lives, and to fully embrace discipleship and stewardship.

It's Okay to be Tempted. True. But it is love and truth, guiding the humble to justice.

**Since the Kingdom of God is at hand,
how will I repent?*

\ What must I stop saying and doing

First Sunday in Lent

The Test

After his baptism, Jesus was driven into the desert by the Spirit so he could be tested. Unlike Matthew's and Luke's gospels, Mark did not explain the temptations. Instead, he used it as a transition between the baptism and the ministry of Jesus. Mark would return to the solitude of Jesus again and again to stress the prayer life of the Master.

FIRST READING The Book of Genesis told the story of Noah. After the flood, God blessed Noah with the sign of the rainbow, the sign of his mercy for humanity. Never again would God destroy life with a flood

PSALM Psalm 25 was a supplication song, yet it reflected a style of wisdom literature. It asks for forgiveness so the author can gain wisdom. It begged for mercy so the singer could have a second chance and live according to God's will.

SECOND READING In 1 Peter, the author presented Jesus the Almighty, even in his death. We all believe Jesus is divine, but do we consider his power even at his (and our) weakest point? Yet, that is the power of God at our baptism. Even in death, Jesus was God. Even in death, he raises us up to new life, a life we find in Baptism.

GOSPEL The Temptation of Jesus in the desert is almost non-existent in Mark's gospel. Unlike the three temptations found in Luke and Matthew, the Temptation consisted of a single verse. But we should not overlook that verse. It acts as transitions to the them the Baptist's and Christ's preaching.

And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose and went out to a lonely place, and there he prayed.

Mark 1:35 (RSV-CE)
