

Family and Consumer Sciences Teachers Association of Texas

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Family and Consumer Sciences Teachers Association of Texas is to contribute to the professional and personal development of member economists and to the betterment of public education in Texas; to expand public knowledge and understanding of family and consumer sciences education and to represent the profession as a whole where the image, expertise and scope of FCSTAT prove useful.

Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher Association of Texas: Chartered in 1963.