DoubleDown

Real Money from ThinHaus*

Let's say that you want a ThinHaus, but money is tight. Not impossibly tight, but tight enough to give you pause. Well, we might be able to help.

How about if you set up a savings account at your local credit union and put some money in it every week for the next six months and use that money to buy a ThinHaus A2410 or B2410? What if ThinHaus gave you a discount coupon for the total of those deposits (up to $5,200) to use for your down payment?

If you put $100/week in there, you'd have a five grand down payment. Put in $200 and you'd have over ten grand! That's a lot!

You could use the time to finalize your ThinHaus design, do site preparation and and arrange for delivery.

There is no risk on this because you are the only one who knows the account numbers. ThinHaus will simply match your deposits with a discount coupon (there is no "real" cash from ThinHaus on this) when you show us the bank statment at the end. We'll even pay for your $100 ThinHaus "Get-In-Line" deposit. If, at any time, you don't want to do it, just let us know and the whole thing ends. You take your money and do with it what you like. We'll cancel your order, give your place in line to the next person and that will be that. There will be no obligation on your part. You owe nothing. You pay nothing and you get nothing.

ThinHaus is doubling your down payment when you buy an A2410 or B2410. That should keep the banks happy, lower your payments and make owning a ThinHaus a whole lot easier.

* Here are the conditions: The "money" that ThinHaus contributes to this program is in the form of a discount coupon for a complete ThinHaus model A2410 or B2410, only. There is no actual money and if you do not buy a ThinHaus, then we will not be adding anything to your account. The maximum ThinHaus coupon will be $5,200USD. No other discounts or coupons can be used and any sales reward money will be subtracted from this total. ThinHaus will be the sole arbitor of what is fair and can, without notice and retroactively cancel this program if we feel that anyone has taken advantage of it. The program will end 12/31/20 and the coupon must be used by 12/31/21.
