The Asinabka Festival is super excited to host the first edition of the "Asin Fest Music Series", here on the unsundered land of the Algonquin Nation, highlighting local and non-local Indigenous musicians. "Asin" in Anishinaabemowin means "Rock", so welcome to Rock Fest. The final installment of the Asin Fest Music Series culminates with a Full Day of contemporary Indigenous Music during the 2017 Asinabka Festival. Special thanks to the support of the Community Foundation of Ottawa.
