All Are Welcome

All Are Welcome, ELW hymn 641, text and music written by Marty Haugen, is an earworm that has been buzzing around in my head recently, looking ahead to September, and the beginning of many new things. New things can be exciting, but also a bit scary at the same time. Children and youth may have new teachers, new classmates, and new schools. Some adults may have new jobs, or are still getting the lay of the land with a new season. Some adults may have recently retired, and are wondering what their new rhythm of life will be. Regardless of what is new, or not new, all ARE welcome here! Some things this fall will be a continuation, like worship, which has been happening all summer. Some things will be new within something familiar, such as a new topic for confirmation, and new stories in LIFT, but confirmation and LIFT will be familiar to many of the participants. And some things will be brand new to everyone. Adult study options are being looked into, and there may be other new things happening as well.

How are we welcoming to others? There will be some people we haven't seen in a while, so we can welcome them back with a hug or handshake, and conversation to catch up. If we see someone we don't recognize, do we talk to them, introduce ourselves, find out who they are, and show them around a bit, perhaps inviting them to stay for coffee fellowship time after worship?

Are there things we could do to be more welcoming as a congregation? Are there changes to the building that need to be made? Are there changes to the bulletin or worship service that would be easier for new people to follow? Walk into the church, into worship, with the eyes of a new person. What do we automatically know how to do "because that's what we do here,” that could be confusing to a new person? How can we make things more accessible?

Jesus welcomed ALL people. He welcomed the poor beggar, he welcomed the Pharisee Nicodemus, he welcomed stinky fishermen, he welcomed the outcast tax collector. He welcomes us today, on our good days and our bad days, when we are at our best, and at our worst. Let us work toward welcoming others, as Jesus did.

“Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live, a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive. Built of hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of grace; here the love of Christ shall end divisions: All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

“Let us build a house where prophets speak, and words are strong a true, where all God’s children dare to seek to dream God’s reign anew. Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God’s grace; here as one we claim the faith of Jesus: All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

“Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat: a banquet hall on holy ground where peace and justice meet. Here the love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and space; as we share in Christ the feast that frees us: All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

“Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone to heal and strengthen, serve and teach, and live the Word they’ve known. Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God’s face; let us bring an end to fear and danger: All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.

“Let us build a house where all are named, their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word. Built of tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace, let this house proclaim from floor to rafter: All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.”

Off to a Grand Start...

September will be off to a grand start on Sunday, September 3. It is Labor Day weekend, so many of you will probably be out doing family things – camping, getting the last school supplies, maybe moving a student into a dorm – and may not be in church. You are welcome whenever you can make it!

Confirmation students and parents will meet on September 6th, at 6:15 pm, for an orientation session.

September 10th will be our Rally Day, a day to gather as a congregation at the start of the new program year. We will have a special coffee fellowship time after church to honor Jeanine and Bill Olson, as they are moving to the Twin Cities in September, to be closer to their children.

LIFT and confirmation classes begin September 13th; more information will be coming about what is happening that week. Please keep an eye on the LIFT and church facebook pages.

Children in grades 4 and 3 will receive their 3rd grade Bibles, and those ages 4 and 3 will receive their 3-year-old Bibles, on Sundays in September and early October. Watch for letters in the mail!

I hope you have had a great summer, and I look forward to seeing you in church!

Church News & Events

The new FLC Fairstand was a success at the 2023 Pipestone County Fair! We had a few kinks to work out the first day with everything being new and different but it worked beautifully! THANK YOU SO MUCH to all who worked to get the fairstand up and running and an extra special THANK YOU to all who stepped up and worked in the fairstand.

We couldn't do it without everyone's help and we are SO BLESSED by each and every one of you! We are so excited to see what the future holds for our fairstand all thanks to you, our wonderful church family!

We would like to cordially invite all members of First Lutheran Church to join us after worship next Sunday, September 10th in the Fellowship Hall for a farewell gathering for two of our longtime members, Bill & Jeanine Olson. Bill & Jeanine will be moving to the Lino Lakes area to be closer to their children and grandchildren. Help us to let them know how much they will be missed after a lifetime of sharing their time, talents and love of God with our church.

We would like to start a traveling social group – Golden Girls or Grumpy Ol' Men - at First Lutheran.

Nothing overwhelming, just a group of people (men and/or women) getting together once a month (or more!) to go visit with others in our church or community OR you are welcome to gather here at the church, if need be (we would just need to know a date and time).

If you would like to be a host or a participant, contact the church office or Craig Thies (605-413-7247). There are a few details yet to be worked out, but we need to know if there is an interest . More information will be posted so be watching for updates!

Make sure to join us for Coffee Fellowship in the Narthex after worship every Sunday!! It's a great time to visit with visitors to our church as well as other members. If you would like to bring goodies to pass or help serve, there are sign-up sheets are in the Narthex or you can contact Lori in the office!!

Are you looking for a great gift idea for a wedding or even Christmas?

We have beautiful quilts and sturdy jean rugs for sale here at the church. The rugs and quilts are displayed in the Fellowship Hall so stop in and take a look! Quilts are $50 and rugs are priced on their individual tags. We also have our church cookbooks available for $5.00!

Payments can be made to FLCW and put in the office mailbox.

DON'T FORGET THE CHURCH DIRECTORY!

If you have any pictures that you would like to share in the directory that you have taken at church activities, contact the church office.

We would like to get more added before we print copies. Please bring them in to the church office or email them to Lori at: office@firstlutheranpipestone.org.

If you have been able to get the directory app on your mobile devices or your computer, you can also print a copy of the directory any time.

F.L.C.W News and Activities

September 2023

Dear FLCW,

Welcome back to fall and its activities! This is my favorite time of year.

Thanks to all who donated items, gave cash, and helped assemble the LWR School Kits. We made 110 backpacks. Most of our supply of the items for next year is low. Not much to store, which is a good thing.

Six women visited Painted Prairie Winery near Currie. They enjoyed lunch, wine tasting, and a self-guided tour. A cannon to scare the birds was a unique experience.

Quilting continues this month. Meet at the church at 9:30 am on Thursday, September 14 and Thursday, September 28. We could use more help. All you need to know is how to tie a knot!

Group Circle is scheduled for Tuesday, September 26 at Shetek Lutheran Ministries. Meet at the church at 9:30 to drive to Shetek for coffee and goodies. We will have our September 2023 Gather Bible Study, and enjoy lunch at the camp. Cost for lunch is $10. We can also walk around the camp to enjoy the fall foliage around the camp and lake.

We will also be discussing the cake pan fundraiser and Kaffi Ti. How much are you willing to pay for a personalized cake pan? It looks like $32 plus $4 shipping and handling is what it would be for items like we did several years ago. That would have us make $8 per item. Bring your ideas on this to the meeting or call me if you are unable to attend. It also looks like the date for Kaffi Ti may need to go back to our original date—the second Saturday in December. We also need to discuss what the event will look like. Bring your ideas on Kaffi Ti, too.

The Shetek Conference Fall Gathering will be held at Shetek Lutheran Ministries on Saturday, September 30 beginning at 9 am. Cost is $12.00 for the day. All officers are encouraged to attend and anyone is welcome.

I will be travelling to Phoenix September 20-25 to attend the Triennial Gathering. I really hope the temperature is below 100 while I am there! I plan to learn new things and meet new people that have ideas for us in our corner of the world.

See you in church!

Pre-Marriage Workshops

Saturday, September 30th, 2023

Shetek Lutheran Ministries

14 Keeley Island Drive; Slayton, MN

Congratulations on your upcoming marriage! Shetek Lutheran Ministries would like to be a part of helping you get your marriage off to a strong start, by offering you and your fiancée a chance to think about some key marriage issues, together with other couples also ready to get married.

You probably know that the state of Minnesota offers couples a reduced rate on the marriage license if they put in at least twelve hours of pre-marriage instruction. This day will qualify for eight of those hours. The other hours you will want to spend with your pastor in planning your wedding and talking about your specific relationship.

Some of the topics we will cover will include:

- ✓ Communication skills and conflict resolution
- ✓ Financial matters and budgeting
- ✓ The spirituality of marriage

You can see that this is not a “wedding fair!” We won’t be selling wedding gowns, or offering services for catering, etc. The focus on this workshop will be on what happens after you say “I do,” and how to keep your relationship healthy.

Come and join us at camp on the shores of beautiful Lake Shetek. Directions and a printable registration form are available online also. You may also register online. Registration is only $30 per couple. Included are rolls and coffee in the morning and lunch at noon. You don’t have to be Lutheran to attend!

5 Bible messages for youth that make a huge impact:

By Rachel Blom December 15, 2022, from www.churchleaders.com/youth

1. God loves you, no matter what.

This is the most important truth of them all and one that we should keep repeating every single time we talk to teens. No matter what you have done, no matter what you will do, God will always love you. He loves you even if you're the biggest sinner that ever walked the face of the earth. There is absolutely nothing you could ever do that would make God stop loving you. Let's tell teens that and affirm them in God's love for them again and again.

2. I love you.

It may sound too cheesy to say, but do you know how many teens are longing to hear someone say this to them? Show them you love them in spending time with them, investing in a relationship with them. But don't forget to say the words as well. Hey man, I love you, you're like a little brother to me, you know that? I love you girl; I'm so blessed to know you and to have you in my life. Say the words and watch them make a difference.

3. I forgive you.

Teens will mess up. At one point or another, they will make a mistake, cost you money or end up hurting you. How you react to this can have a huge impact on them. The words they need to hear are: I forgive you (possibly followed by: And I still love you!). Teens need to know that they have the room for mistakes, that messing up every now and then is OK.

4. No.

I've been reading a book called Generation iY and the author paints a startling picture of the current generation of teens (I'll be reviewing the book later this week). One of the things he states is that this generation is spoiled. On one hand, their parents are usually overprotective and hovering, but on the other hand they are afraid to set clear boundaries, deny their kids' requests and simply say no.

Teens need boundaries, they need rules, and they need to hear you say no. As a youth leader, it's important to remember that you are not their buddy or BFF, you are their leader. They follow you, not the other way around. That means setting boundaries and lovingly saying no when teens cross them. You may feel like you're hurting them by saying no, but in the end, it'll be better for them...and for you.

5. Hang in there and don't quit.

Barnabas is the best example of an encourager in the Bible. What hit me as I read about him encouraging young believers was his message to them:

"(...) strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith and saying: 'We must go through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God.'" (Acts 14:22 NKJV)

Encouraging our teens doesn't mean telling them it's all gonna be OK, that things will look better tomorrow or that others have it way worse. Barnabas encouraged young believers by telling them the truth: Struggles and trials are part of life as a Christian. Just hang in there and don't give up. And I'd like to add: And you're not alone. Those are words teens need to hear.

Being a teen has never been easy and it sure isn't nowadays. Teens need our support and encouragement, both in their everyday struggles and in their faith. But let's encourage them with the truth, not with platitudes. Let's help them to continue in their faith, to hang in there and not quit.

A School Prayer for Balance

*"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven."
 -Ecclesiastes 3:1*

God, help my child to find balance as they begin a new routine over the course of the school year. Help them to wisely choose how to spend their time. Make room in their life for schoolwork, rest, friends, fun, and the other activities that they choose to pursue. Amen.
