Arizona Small Business Association (ASBA) Announces AZBizCon Tucson

Tucson, AZ – The Arizona Small Business Association (ASBA) proudly presents its second AZBizCon Expo of 2023, an in-person event on September 13, from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM at the Tucson Association of Realtors office. Registration is available for free to the public at www.asba.com/azbizcon.

ASBA's AZBizCon in Phoenix was a tremendous success, and ASBA is thrilled to bring the organization's signature tradeshow back to the Southern Arizona business community for the third year in a row. This half-day event will feature some of Arizona's most dynamic businesses; opening remarks from Dr. Paul Melendez, the University of Arizona's prominent professor, discussing leadership through turbulence; a raffle, and much more. Participants will enjoy access to key business leaders, an invaluable opportunity to represent their business to fellow entrepreneurs of the state, expand their professional network, and show support for the local businesses that drive the Arizona economy.

Sponsorship and exhibitor opportunities are still available for this event. Contact ASBA to learn more about how to support local Tucson businesses, and join top Arizona businesses at this free business event.
