

2020 Panhellenic Exec Elections

The Process: What You Need to Know

The election process has three phases: Application, Meet the Candidates, and Speeches.

Candidates will be evaluated by representatives from all 13 Chapters throughout the entire process.

Candidates are not guaranteed an invitation to Speeches.

Candidates should not discuss the elections process with individuals serving as Chapter representatives (Nominating Committee/Voting Delegation).

Once the slate is formed and passed with a majority vote from all 13 Chapters, we will have our 2020 Panhellenic Exec Board!

FAQs!

- Time Commitment
- Busy Seasons?
- Perspective from the Recruitment Team
- What have you learned?
- What contributed to your success on the Board?

Position Referencing

- On the application, you may select “Willing to Serve,” “Not Willing to Serve,” or “Not Qualified to Serve” for each position
  - The more positions you are willing to serve in, the more likely you will be slated for the board
  - You may edit your preferences any time up until speeches

Remember that you are applying for Exec
first, rather than just a position.

We work as a team dynamic!
